Honorable Philip M. Klutznick
The Secretary of Commerce
Washington, D.C. 20230

JUN 9 1980

Dear Phil:

Thank you for your May 19, 1980 memorandum concerning your views on the meeting with the President and the automobile manufacturers at the White House on May 14, 1980. The points you raise on the issue of possible Japanese establishment of automobile and parts manufacturing facilities in this country are certainly well taken. I would like to discuss further your views on this subject as well as a number of other matters, and look forward to seeing you in a few days.

Again, many thanks for your continued help.

Sincerely,

Neil Goldschmidt

cc: The President
Honorable Stuart E. Eizenstat
