MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

From: Warren Christopher W.C.
G. William Miller Bill

Subject: PLO Observer Status at IMF/IBRD
Annual Meetings

Over a year ago, the Palestine Liberation Organization requested observer status for the annual IMF/IBRD meeting held in Belgrade last fall. The membership was split on the issue, basically on developing/developed country lines. The Chairman of the meetings (a New Zealander in 1979), who decides such questions, chose a procedural out, referring the issue to a working group to develop a recommendation for the 1980 meeting. This group has now issued its report, split 4-4 along straight developing vs. developed country lines. The issue is now left to this year's Chairman of the annual meetings, Tanzania's Finance Minister Amir Jamal.

Treasury Secretary Miller met with Jamal two months ago and made it clear that the U.S. is opposed to observer status for the PLO. We are greatly concerned that this issue could politicize the meetings and disrupt the important work of these institutions. Legislation to increase the funding of both institutions, now pending in the Congress, is critically important to our efforts to buttress the international monetary system and meet our development objectives. This legislation already faces difficult problems. PLO participation in the annual meetings--even in the role of "observer"--could seriously jeopardize Congressional support for the funding of these institutions. There are other domestic political repercussions (and possibly violence) that could be expected from the visit to Washington of a PLO delegation.

We know [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] that there is a real danger that PLO observer status would be counter-productive to IMF and World Bank operations in the developing world. [REDACTED]

and

[REDACTED] has now been [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] that Nyerere has in fact decided that Jamal will rule in favor of the PLO request. There are various procedural methods of delaying or deflecting a confrontation on this issue, but Jamal's hands are tied unless Nyerere can be convinced that approval of the PLO request will undermine the cause of economic assistance to the developing world.

We are pursuing several approaches to try to reverse Nyerere's decision. [REDACTED]

We

[REDACTED] are also exploring whether intermediaries might be able to convince the PLO not to press the issue further. However, we feel that our best prospect for turning Nyerere around would be a letter from you to Nyerere. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Ideally, we would favor having Andy Young deliver the letter directly to Nyerere in Dar es Salaam or at the funeral for President Khama of Botswana, whose death is imminent. Alternatively, Assistant Secretary of State Dick Moose could deliver the letter at the Khama funeral or make a side trip to Tanzania from the Vice President's visit to West Africa.

Nyerere's position could become public at any time, and we will thus need to move quickly to have any chance of persuading Nyerere to reverse his decision. Given the urgency and disruptive potential of the issue, we believe it is important to move quickly.

Recommendation:

That you sign the attached letter to President Nyerere.

~~TOP SECRET~~ [REDACTED]

Draft letter from President Carter to President Nyerere

Dear Mr. President:

I want to raise a subject of deep concern to me and to our mutual hopes for the well-being of the developing world.

As you know, the Palestine Liberation Organization has requested observer status at the annual meetings of the IMF and the World Bank. I am deeply concerned that the observer status for the PLO could have an adverse effect on the support my government would be able to provide to the institutions and, through them, to the developing nations.

Finance Minister Jamal, who is chairman of the meeting this year and will play a key role in the decision on this issue, has no doubt kept you current on this problem and on my government's views. But I wanted to be certain you were aware of my personal concern that this issue could politicize the meetings and seriously disrupt the important work of these institutions. In this country, I can assure you that a decision to grant observer status to the PLO would become an important political issue and would harm my own effort to gain Congressional support for funding these institutions.

His Excellency

Julius Nyerere,

President of the United Republic of Tanzania,
Dar es Salaam.

DECLASSIFIED
E.O. 12356, Sec. 3.4
PER 3/30/93 NS/HRE MR-NLC-92-183
BY NARS, DATE 4/5/94

It is important that we not allow the PLO observer issue to distract us from our efforts to alleviate the terrible economic difficulties faced by so much of mankind. In fact, I believe the whole question of observers at the Bank/Fund meetings could benefit from further study and rationalization before the specific case of the PLO needs to be decided. I urge you to use your influence to prevent a damaging confrontation in the Bank and Fund context over the PLO issue.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Carter

Les Denend (NSC) furnished rewrite to Berman with two sentences in the second paragraph.

I prepared another version, omitting second sentence of said paragraph. Denend's second sentence goes beyond requirement of responsiveness to Berman's request; more tellingly, it seems to me to imply that there was a time when terrorism and acts of violence might have been appropriate.

Dear Mr. President:

The hundreds of thousands of Americans who worship in our congregations across the United States take comfort in your assurances that our country will not recognize the PLO unless it renounces its sworn objective to destroy Israel and accepts Resolution 242. Yet the press and diplomatic sources continue to suggest that if you are reelected the PLO will be recognized by the United States after the election.

We respectfully request that you put these reports to rest by informing the American people clearly and succinctly that the position of the United States is, and will remain, a moral one not based on political expediency and that it will not recognize or deal with the PLO unless it accepts 242 and forswears the destruction of Israel.

Dear Mr. Berman:

I am replying to your message to President Carter concerning U.S. support for U.N. Resolution 242.

Let me assure you that the United States has not supported any resolution in the United Nations which seeks to amend or supplant U.N. Security Council Resolution 242, which remains the agreed basis for peace in the Middle East and the cornerstone of the Camp David Agreements.

Israel's right to live in peace within secure and recognized borders is a fundamental principle of American foreign policy.

Dear Mr. President:

On behalf of the American Orthodox Jewish Community, we object to any consideration on an amendment to modify the meaning and implications of United Nations Resolution 242, which is the basis of the Camp David agreements. Such a modification, were it to come to pass, would seriously compromise the diplomatic position of the State of Israel, and thereby impede further progress towards peace in the Middle East.

It is clear that the attempt in the United Nations to modify Resolution 242, the sale of advanced weaponry to Jordan, and the one-sided condemnation of Israeli retaliation in Southern Lebanon are part of an overall strategy. That strategy, as "leaked" by a "high Administration official" to members of the Washington press corp, is designed to extract major concessions from Israel within a short term period as a direct payoff for Arab oil blackmail. It is an insult and an outrage to the American people, as so eloquently expressed by Senator Moynihan, and it casts doubt on our status as an independent and free nation.

These actions belie your repeated denials that the U.S. is in fact submitting to oil blackmail and only encourages militancy by the Arabs, and the chances for a fatal miscalculation, leading to another, more tragic round of war in the Middle East.

We therefore urge you to reconsider this ill-advised new turn in American foreign policy, and reverse its course before irreparable damage is done to the cause of peace in the Middle East, and America's image and reputation as a great power in the world.

Very truly yours,

Dear Jimmy:

Enclosed is a report of an unclassified seminar on the Soviet energy situation which my university conducted recently in Washington. I recommend that you scan the Executive Summary. There is probably little there that you do not already know, except that 1) a lot of people outside of government are knowledgeable in this area and there is a diversity of opinions, 2) the CIA and DIA are in some sort of dog fight which may influence the picture you are getting, and 3) no real, detailed, thinking has been put to paper as to the ultimate implications of the Soviet Union's moving into Middle East oil in order to maintain her role as a supplier of oil and gas to Eastern and Western Europe. France and West Germany seem to be calculating what is being written on the wall and seem to be moving basically toward accommodation rather than defense. Maybe they are wise. In view of our present conventional military posture, maybe that's all they can do. I understand that Bob Komer over in DOD is studying our role under these circumstances. I will try to arrange to meet him. What is involved, to my mind, is the entire NATO and OECD structure--the balance of power, trade, and influence built up since World War II. Maybe we don't need all this, but surely we should understand precisely what the costs could be if it disintegrates because of the oil mechanism before the next generation can put a new world together.

The omnibus energy bill with the Synthetic Fuel Corporation provision has passed. I hope you received my letter of June 10. I imagine you will have to sign this bill even with the mandate for filling the Strategic Petroleum Reserve in it. The rate of filling mandated will have little practical effect, but it reassures the voters that Congress is all for national security while leaving you to worry about the Saudi Arabians and their reactions. The favorite sort of election year cheap shot. But then you can probably handle the Saudis, since they are beginning to realize, I think, that without your support they might be forced to give up their Cadillacs, translate the Koran, and learn to speak Russian. In any case the energy program you proposed so brilliantly last summer is now pulling together. The failure of the Emergency Mobilization Board Bill could have a crippling effect, of course. I hope that it can be made a first order of business for the next Congress after your reelection or that, alternatively, some of the provisions of the EMB can be made available to the Synthetic Fuel Corporation's Board of Directors as the people of this country begin to understand the energy-related national security issues at stake in this decade. The realization will eventually hit all of our people, even the radical fringe groups terrorizing Congress, that the alternative to synfuel production on a large scale and in a short time may well be a very nasty and expensive war which would result in a loss of petroleum besides lives even if we won. Most of the anti-energy "nuts and berries" people have little stomach for war.

I have resigned as Director of OSU's Energy and National Security Project. It is well established now—my book is coming out. I will maintain an office at the university but will devote most of my time in the future to research, writing, and consulting. My address for the next three months will be:

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: STU EIZENSTAT Stu

SUBJECT: Potential Japanese Voluntary Restraint in Automobile Sector

I want to confidentially report to you two communications which I have had which I think are of significant importance regarding the import situation.

On Saturday, July 12, 1980, Bob Keefe met with me and reported a communication he had received from a close personal friend, Mr. Naito, the Director of the Americas and Oceans Division, International Policy Bureau, of the Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI). The substance of this communication was that MITI was prepared to put into effect a voluntary restraint on a unilateral basis for Japanese auto imports, at an unspecified level, but did not want to do so if you would find it unacceptable.

Mr. Keefe made it clear that he was bringing the communication because the Japanese Government did not want to go through official channels on this and wanted their effort to be as purely unilateral and voluntary as possible. They did not want it to appear that they were reacting to government pressure here.

Then on July 15, 1980, as a result of a contact made to Al Stern on my staff, I received a call from Mr. Joji Konoshima, who is the Director of the Asian Affairs Unit at the Democratic National Committee. Mr. Konoshima reported receiving communications from a number of individuals, including the President of the Japanese equivalent of the Chamber of Commerce, the head of Toyota Motor Sales, a lawyer in New York City who represents a number of Japanese corporations and several other people reporting virtually the same communication. Again Mr. Konoshima pointed out that the Japanese were willing to do a voluntary restraint. They wanted to do it quietly and unofficially but would not want it to be in place unless it was acceptable to you. Of course the announcement of the restraint itself would be public but the arrangements would be done quietly.

Again, it was pointed out that they wanted to avoid appearing to bow to U.S. pressure but to do it as a gesture. Mr. Konoshima said that they were very taken by your trip to Japan and viewed it as a magnanimous gesture and that if you found it acceptable they would like to voluntarily put into place a restraint program. Mr. Konoshima thought that this could be done within two or three weeks.

I need your advice on how to proceed and will await it before taking any further action.

I frankly think that this can provide the best solution to a very difficult problem. It does not get you out front in demanding restraints, but would have the Japanese take action which would be viewed well by the auto industry and the labor community. Presumably, since the Japanese do very little that they do not feel is in their national interest, they believe that such restraint taken voluntarily would be beneficial to them to avoid even more protectionist action later.

My dear Mr. President,

Your speech before the
N.E.A. was a rousing success.
The teachers' enthusiasm about you continued to bubble through the succeeding days of their convention.

The A.F.I. will come through for you after the convention.
Mr. President, these teachers are going to bring you in the winner,

SUBJECT:

Overseas Private Investment Corporation

You appointed James M. Friedman as a Member of the OPIC Board two years ago. His term has expired. Bruce Llewellyn, President of OPIC, and Tom Ehrlich, Director of the International Development Cooperation Agency, join us in recommending that he be reappointed. Friedman, who practices law in Cleveland, has been most responsible in the discharge of his board duties and very supportive of your efforts to reorganize the government's development assistance activities.

APPROVE DISAPPROVE

Edward L. Marcus was appointed by you two years ago as well. His term expires at the end of this year. A practicing attorney in New Haven, he too has been a responsible and supportive board member. Llewellyn, Ehrlich and Bill Cable join us in recommending that he be reappointed.

APPROVE DISAPPROVE

Of the thirteen members authorized for the OPIC Board, you have been able to appoint them all except one -- a labor member. Now you have the opportunity to do so. Llewellyn, Ehrlich and Landon Butler join us in recommending David J. Fitzmaurice, President of the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers. A member of the AFL-CIO Executive Council, Fitzmaurice has served as a member of the White House Conference on Balanced Growth and Economic Development.

MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

JACK WATSON
ARNIE MILLER

SUBJECT:

National Consumer Cooperative Bank (NCCB)

Because of the resignations of Graciela Olivarez (CSA) and Bill Clements (SBA), there are two vacancies for government officials on the Board of the NCCB. We suggest the following two individuals.

Richard Rios was recently confirmed as the new director of CSA which, until the time the bank was created, was the only government agency that sought to extend the cooperative concept to low income and disadvantaged communities as a partial solution to their problems. Naming him to replace Olivarez would ensure that the bank and CSA will continue working in a mutually beneficial manner.

James Joseph, Undersecretary of Interior, was chief executive officer of a large midwestern foundation before joining your administration. In that capacity, he funded the development of numerous low income and minority producer and consumer cooperatives throughout the South. He would bring that highly relevant experience in addition to the perspective on natural resources and energy matters he has gained in his current position.

Larry Connell, Chairman of the Bank's board and the person you named as Chairman of the National Credit Union Administration, concurs with the following recommendation.

RECOMMENDATION:

Nominate Richard Rios and James Joseph as Government Board Members of the National Consumer Cooperative Bank.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT
FROM: James T. McIntyre, Jr. [Signature]
SUBJECT: Allocation to the White House Office,
Salaries and Expenses

Attached for your consideration is an allocation in the amount of $100,000 from the appropriation "Unanticipated Needs" to the "White House Office, Salaries and Expenses."

The allocation is the result of the substantially increased and unbudgeted travel and related expenses necessitated by the recent efforts to resolve several foreign and domestic situations.

An estimate of $35,000 for the Executive Residence and $10,000 for the Vice President's Office has been included in this request to be utilized in the same manner.

I. PURPOSE

To greet the representative to the 34th annual session of Girls Nation.

II. BACKGROUND, AUDIENCE AND PRESS PLAN

- 80 (42) (33)
- A. Background: Since 1938, the American Legion Auxiliary has sponsored an annual citizenship training program for high school students on the processes of city and state government, called "Girls State". In 1947, the program was expanded to include the "Girls Nation" program, which brings 100 girls (2 elected from each "Girls State") to Washington, D.C. each summer to learn about the workings of the federal government.

During the week long program, they meet with federal government officials on Capitol Hill and in various Departments for briefings. They also hold their own national convention and election and install their winners in office. You will be meeting their newly elected President and Vice President. It is estimated that by the end of 1980, a total of 590,000 girls will have been trained in the processes of government through these programs.

Next week you are scheduled to greet the representatives of Boys Nation.

- B. Audience: Approximately 130 people will be attending, including the 100 girls and 32 volunteer staff. These 100 girls represent approximately 25,000 young people who have participated in the Girls State programs throughout the United States this year. All of the staff members are members of the American Legion Auxiliary and work as volunteers.

C. Press Plan: There will be open press coverage of your remarks.

III. AGENDA

Just prior to your remarks they will have had a White House tour. In the event of rain, your Rose Garden greeting will be cancelled.

Standing by the podium when you arrive will be the newly elected President and Vice President of Girls Nation, Lenora Mosley, and Tamara Madison. Also present will be Mrs. Agnes Kennedy, the National President of the American Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. Margaret Yankovich, Director of the Girls Nation.

Both Lenora and Tamara are high school juniors and were elected to their positions this week by their fellow Girls Nation representatives. Lenora is from Tennessee and Tamara is from Indiana.

IV. TALKING POINTS

Girl's Nation Participants

1. IT SEEMS THAT EVERYONE'S A GOVERNOR OR FORMER GOVERNOR THESE DAYS. BUT THIS IS REALLY SOMETHING. I UNDERSTAND YOU'VE ALL RUN FOR PRESIDENT, TOO.

2. ALREADY, YOU HAVE PARTICIPATED IN MODEL GOVERNMENTS -- IN DEBATING AND ORGANIZING AND DISCUSSING THE ISSUES OF THE DAY. YOU HAVE SEEN, I HOPE, THAT IT IS NOT AN EASY TASK TO TAKE ON THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF GOVERNING, THAT THERE ARE NO EASY ANSWERS TO THE ENERGY, INFLATION AND NATIONAL SECURITY PROBLEMS WE FACE.

3. SLOGANS WILL NOT HELP. QUICK FIXES CAN ONLY HURT. WHAT WE NEED INSTEAD IS WHAT I HOPE HAS BEEN INSPIRED IN ALL OF YOU -- AN EAGERNESS TO FACE OUR CHALLENGES, AND THE PATIENCE TO THINK THEM THROUGH. CERTAINLY WE AMERICANS ARE BIG ENOUGH AND BRIGHT ENOUGH AND BOLD ENOUGH. YOU HERE TODAY ARE PROOF OF THAT. ALREADY YOU HAVE BEEN SINGLED OUT FOR ACHIEVEMENT IN YOUR COMMUNITIES AND SCHOOLS.

4. YOU EMBODY SOMETHING ELSE, TOO -- THE DREAMS OF YOUR PARENTS, AS WELL AS THE HOPE OF YOUR NATION. YOU HAVE MORE OPPORTUNITIES BEFORE YOU THAN YOUR MOTHERS AND GRANDMOTHERS DID, EVEN MORE THAN YOUR OLDER SISTERS. AND YET YOU DO NOT HAVE THE SAME RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES THAT YOUR FATHERS AND BROTHERS SHARE. AND YOU WON'T -- UNTIL THE ERA IS RATIFIED IN THREE MORE STATES.

5. EQUAL RIGHTS IS MORE THAN JUST EQUAL PAY -- IT IS THE OPPORTUNITY TO RECEIVE AN EQUAL EDUCATION, EQUAL TREATMENT UNDER THE LAW, AN EQUAL CHANCE TO USE YOUR GOD-GIVEN TALENTS.

6. THE ERA SHOULD BE IMPORTANT TO YOU FOR THESE REASONS, AND MORE -- NOT JUST BECAUSE YOU ARE WOMEN, NOT SIMPLY BECAUSE IT IS YOUR FUTURE AT STAKE. YOU HAVE EXHIBITED MORE THAN JUST A PASSING INTEREST IN GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS.

7. BEFORE YOU NOW IS AN OPPORTUNITY TO GO BEYOND MODEL GOVERNMENTS AND STUDENT POLITICS. NOW YOU HAVE A CHANCE TO PUT TO USE WHAT YOU HAVE LEARNED, AND TO LEARN MORE, BY PARTICIPATING IN THE REAL THING, BY JOINING US IN THE FIGHT FOR THE ERA.

DUTY IS A CONCEPT PEOPLE OFTEN SHY AWAY FROM THESE DAYS. BUT EACH OF US IS CALLED UPON TO DO OUR DUTY TO THOSE CLOSE TO US, TO OUR NATION, AND TO HUMAN BEINGS EVERYWHERE, IN A VARIETY OF EXPECTED & UNEXPECTED WAYS.

AMERICA'S BEST YOUNG ATHLETES HAVE BEEN CALLED TO DUTY THIS YEAR IN A WAY NONE OF THEM MIGHT HAVE EXPECTED. TOMORROW THE OLYMPIC GAMES BEGIN IN MOSCOW. THE YOUNG AMERICAN WOMEN AND MEN WHO HAVE SACRIFICED SO MUCH TO PREPARE THEMSELVES FOR THAT COMPETITION WILL NOT BE THERE BECAUSE THEY ANSWERED A HIGHER CALL. BY THEIR ABSENCE THEY ARE REMINDING THE WORLD OF THE MEN AND WOMEN AND CHILDREN WHO ARE EVEN NOW DYING IN AFGHANISTAN. THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT

- Sec. 1 Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.
- Sec. 2 The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.
- Sec. 3 This amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification.

1. Introduction

On March 22, 1972, the United States Congress approved the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) to the Federal Constitution and sent it to the States for ratification. The proposed amendment states:

Sec. 1. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

Sec. 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

Sec. 3. This amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification.¹

Ratification of the ERA would for the first time extend to women a clear and full status of equal citizenship under the Constitution. Of course, the text of the ERA makes no mention of either sex, and the principle of equality it expresses is as much for men as it is for women. It is, as Rep. Barbara Jordan has testified, "about human values."

The Equal Rights Amendment is a mandate for change. It is a standard by which to measure our future legal and social constructs. It is about equality and freedom and the pursuit of happiness.²

Equal rights amendments, substantially identical to the one currently proposed, have been introduced in nearly every Congress since 1923. The process has been a natural outgrowth of the ratification of the 19th amendment, which extended the right to vote to women.³ It gained impetus from the recognition that, in the face of extensive evidence of gender-based discrimination, the courts have not interpreted the equal protection guarantees of the 5th and 14th amendments to the Constitution to require strict judicial scrutiny of classifications based upon sex.⁴

FROM:

ANNE WEXLER Ann
GENE EIDENBERG Gene

SUBJECT:

Great Plains Coal Gasification Loan Guarantee
Ceremony/Photo Opportunity

Friday, July 18, 1980

11:30 a.m. (10 minutes), Cabinet Room

Purpose

DOE is providing a conditional commitment to guarantee a $250 million loan for the Nation's first commercial-size coal-to-synthetic natural gas plant to be located near Beulah, North Dakota. In this ten-minute ceremony, you will transmit the conditional loan guarantee to a consortium of five companies led by American Natural Resources of Detroit. The conditional commitment will enable the consortium to secure through private financing and/or the Synthetic Fuels Corporation the remainder of the $1.4 billion necessary to construct the plant. The commitment is conditional pending final DOE certification of National Environmental Policy Act requirements.

The event will be an opportunity to reinforce your support for synfuels development. It will also lend assistance to Governor Link who is having a tough re-election campaign and who requested this ceremony.

Participants

See attached list

Format

The ceremony will take place in the Cabinet Room. A 7' x 8' scale model of the proposed plant will be on display. You will transmit the loan guarantee to Arthur M. Seder, Jr., Chairman and President of American Natural Resources.

In your remarks, special recognition should be given to Governor Arthur Link and Senator Quentin Burdick for their role in making possible this partnership of government and the private sector. You may also wish to recognize Bob Georgeine, President of the International Building Trade Union.

After your remarks, Governor Link and Senator Burdick are expected to make brief statements.

Press

In addition to the White House Press Corps, the event will be covered by energy writers and North Dakota media.

Talking Points: Great Plains Coal Gasification Event

1. I AM PROUD TO ANNOUNCE TODAY OUR $250 MILLION LOAN GUARANTEE FOR THE GREAT PLAINS COAL GASIFICATION PLANT IN NORTH DAKOTA. THIS CONDITIONAL COMMITMENT WILL AID IN CONSTRUCTION OF THE NATION'S FIRST COMMERCIAL-SIZE PLANT TO CONVERT COAL TO SYNTHETIC NATURAL GAS.

2. THE CONSTRUCTION OF THIS PLANT WILL:

- ¶ REPLACE UP TO 9 MILLION BARRELS OF OIL PER YEAR WITH SYNTHETIC NATURAL GAS.
- ¶ PROVIDE NEW JOBS FOR 3000 CONSTRUCTION WORKERS AND 500 PLANT OPERATORS.
- ¶ INCREASE THE USE OF COAL -- OUR NATION'S MOST ABUNDANT ENERGY RESOURCE -- BY 22,000 TONS PER DAY.

3. WITH THIS STEP, WE ARE BEGINNING TO REALIZE THE ENORMOUS PROMISE OF OUR NATIONAL ENERGY POLICY THAT IS AT LAST IN PLACE. LESS THAN THREE WEEKS AGO, I SIGNED THE ENERGY SECURITY ACT -- THE KEYSTONE OF THAT ENERGY POLICY -- WHICH WILL MAKE SUCH PROJECTS POSSIBLE IN ALL AREAS OF ENERGY PRODUCTION. AMERICA IS MAKING THE GREATEST PEACE-TIME EFFORT IN ITS HISTORY. OUR NATION'S COMMITMENT OF INVESTMENT, TECHNOLOGY, MAN-POWER AND RESOURCES WILL DWARF THE COMBINED EFFORTS WE LAUNCHED TO PUT MEN ON THE MOON AND CONSTRUCT THE ENTIRE INTERSTATE HIGH-WAY SYSTEM.

4. WHILE THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IS HELPING OUR NATION TAKE STRONG ACTION TO INCREASE OUR ENERGY SECURITY, WE ARE LEAVING

DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION OPERATIONS to the private sector. ~~--- AMERICAN PRIVATE INDUSTRY.~~

5. THE GREAT PLAINS PLANT MEANS MORE AMERICAN JOBS, MORE AMERICAN ENERGY -- AND LESS INFLATION AND LESS DEPENDENCE ON FOREIGN OIL. THE SYNTHETIC FUELS PORTION OF THE ENERGY SECURITY ACT WILL BY ITSELF ALLOW US TO CUT BACK OUR IMPORTS OF FOREIGN OIL BY 2 MILLION BARRELS A DAY BY 1992, AND WILL HELP CREATE 70,000 NEW JOBS A YEAR. IN THE YEARS AHEAD, OTHER PARTS OF OUR PROGRAM -- SOLAR, BIOMASS, GEOTHERMAL, CONSERVATION -- TAKE US EVEN FURTHER TOWARDS OUR OBJECTIVE OF AN ENERGY-SECURE AMERICA.

6. THE GREAT PLAINS PROJECT HAS ADVANCED THIS FAR AS THE RESULT OF HARD WORK AND PERSEVERANCE ON THE PART OF ITS SPONSORS, AS WELL AS A NUMBER OF FARSIGHTED STATE AND LOCAL OFFICIALS WHO HAVE WORKED HARD OVER THE YEARS TO REMOVE ROAD-BLOCKS TO THIS PROJECT'S SUCCESS. I ESPECIALLY WANT TO THANK AND CONGRATULATE GOVERNOR LINK AND SENATOR BURDICK FOR THEIR DEDICATION AND COMMITMENT.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

11:30 AM

July 18, 1980

Mr. President:

As you requested, attached is the statement you previously approved on the Alaska Natural Gas Transportation System. You may wish to mention this agreement at the beginning of your remarks at the Coal Gasification ceremony. We have attached suggested language.

Stu Eizenstat

I am very pleased that today the Canadian Government has announced its willingness to move forward with development of the Alaska Natural Gas Transportation System by approving the construction of the first major segment of what is intended eventually to be a 4800 mile pipeline from Prudhoe Bay in Alaska through British Columbia and Alberta to the heartland of the United States.

The entire project, which I approved in 1977, is intended to be completed in 1985 and will bring about 2.4 billion cubic feet of Alaskan natural gas to U.S. consumers each day, replacing more than 400,000 barrels of foreign oil. Prudhoe Bay natural gas represents 10 percent of our nation's energy reserves.

PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENT

Electrostatic Copy Made for Preservation Purposes

My Administration's energy policy has always recognized that the energy problem is not unique to our country. The energy burden of the 1980s is shared by all the industrialized nations and by the lesser developed nations as well.

Just as the energy burden is shared by all nations, so must the solution be borne by all in a cooperative spirit. Just last month in Venice, I met with the heads of six other leading nations of the industrialized world to establish specific goals and a series of comprehensive commitments to conservation and the development of new energy supplies. At the time we pledged increased international cooperation among ourselves and with other countries to help achieve these objectives.

When I met with Prime Minister Trudeau of Canada in Venice, ^{we agreed that} one of the potential cooperative projects -- one that could be most meaningful to both our countries -- was the Alaska Natural Gas Transportation System.

[I am very pleased that today the Canadian Government has announced its willingness to move forward on this vast project by approving the construction of the first major segment of what is intended eventually to be a 4800 mile pipeline from Prudhoe Bay in Alaska through British Columbia and Alberta to the heartland of the United States.]

This first segment, approved today by the Canadian Government, will enable U.S. consumers in 33 states to begin receiving additional natural gas from Canada by 1981 -- replacing 200,000 barrels a day of crude oil -- even before the Alaskan and northern Canadian portions of the pipeline are completed. Eventually, too, Canadian natural gas from the north will be able to flow to consumers in Canada.

[The entire project, which I approved in 1977, is intended to be completed in 1985 and will bring about 2.4 billion cubic feet of Alaskan natural gas to U.S. consumers each day, replacing more than 400,000 barrels of foreign oil. Prudhoe Bay natural gas represents 10 percent of our nation's energy reserves.]

I have today sent a letter to Prime Minister Trudeau expressing our confidence that this project will be carried forward to completion and become an example to the world of how international cooperation can serve the common energy needs of both partners. Both Houses of Congress have recently passed resolutions of support for the Alaska pipeline, and I have been able to provide several specific assurances to Prime Minister Trudeau on our commitment as a nation to this joint project. The pipeline is one of the most complex and demanding energy ventures ever undertaken. When completed, it will be a major element in our transition to a more diversified and secure energy economy.
