When Greece was overrun by foreign conquerors and occupied for hundreds of years, the artistic heritage of the people survived and found its expression in the marvellous needlework done by the women. Now, Greek Americans are rediscovering the ancient designs and finding out that they look surprisingly modern...

Remarks to Hispanic Caucus Dinner

Electrostatic Copy Made

Chairman Roybal, distinguished members of Congress, honored guests, "Es un gran placer para Rosalynn y para mi estar aquí con muchas de nuestras amistades.

"Siempre nos sentimos bienvenidos entre los hispanos no solamente por su calurosa amistad sino también por su lealtad a nuestros principios democráticos."*

"Para el beneficio de aquellos pocos que no entienden español voy a continuar en inglés." For the benefit of those few people in our country who do not speak Spanish, I want to continue my remarks in English.

It is a real pleasure to speak before this third annual

* trans: It is a great pleasure for Rosalynn and me to be with so many of our friends. We always feel welcome among Hispanics not only for your warm friendship but also for your loyalty to our democratic principles.

Hispanic Causus
September 18, 1980

IT IS ESPECIALLY GOOD TO BE WITH CONGRESSMAN ED ROYBAL.
HE HAS A GREAT DEAL OF INFLUENCE WITH THE PRESIDENT.

 YOU SEE, AMONG OTHER DUTIES, ED IS CHAIRMAN OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON ~~TREASURY, POSTAL SERVICE AND GENERAL GOVERNMENT.~~ THAT ~~MEANS HE~~ CONTROLS THE WHITE HOUSE BUDGET.

SO, I HAVE TO BE A GOOD PRESIDENT...OR CONGRESSMAN ROYBAL

dinner to honor the achievements of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus. The contributions of Ed Roybal, Bob Garcia, Baltazar Corrada, Kika de la Garza, and Manuel Lujan have served this country well.

I have looked forward to this dinner for the chance to share my concerns about our country and the human fabric that binds together our diverse nation.

This nation has drawn heavily from Hispanic contributions, too many for me to enumerate tonight. But we should be especially thankful for these Hispanic contributions -- a tradition of strong, loving families; a belief in hard work; a deep and enduring belief in God; and a burning commitment to justice.

This dinner comes at a critical time. In less than seven weeks, the American people will choose the next President. But the choice will be more than between two candidates or two parties. Americans will choose between two very different futures.

When you sort through many of the specific issues before us, the choice will be this: Will we continue to strive toward justice and fairness? Or will we turn away from that long struggle?

I know which choice you would make. The formation of the Hispanic Caucus, the issues you have championed in Congress, and your individual careers all testify to an unwavering struggle for justice. In that struggle, you have not only advanced the cause of Hispanic-Americans, you have enriched and strengthened this country.

Long ago you understood that justice and freedom are not a safe harbor. They are an obligation to struggle for and renew these values constantly.

You and I joined together four years ago to bring our country closer to economic justice. We made a commitment that every <sup>person</sup> ~~man and woman~~ in this country should have the chance to work, to feel useful, to have a decent life.

Together, we expanded jobs and training programs. We have targeted hundreds of millions of dollars in direct job assistance for Hispanic workers. And we sent to Congress a major new youth ~~un~~employment program -- it is near passage today.

The sum of these efforts -- new jobs -- is our proudest accomplishment. Since I took office, 1.2 million more Hispanic men and women are on the job. Nearly five million Hispanics are now employed -- one out of every five <sup>has</sup> ~~of them~~ <sup>have been added in</sup> can credit ~~those jobs to the economic expansion of~~ the last 3-1/2 years.

Two years ago, we joined together to enact the Humphrey-Hawkins Act -- ~~restating our goal of full employment. This~~ <sup>and ~~this~~ now we will</sup> ~~year, we are rebuilding~~ the economic base for full employment.

for Preservation Purposes

Our
~~I just announced a major~~ new program to revitalize American industry. ~~It~~ will create a million new jobs in two years -- jobs in growing, competitive industries. It will increase productivity, encourage innovation, and help communities and workers hurt by economic changes.

Our commitment to jobs and justice demands that we help modernize American industry, ~~but~~ ~~yet it also requires~~ that we must solve our economic problems with careful regard for the human consequences. We are determined to share burdens fairly, <sup>and</sup> to protect the poor and elderly, ~~while we rebuild our economy.~~ 8

We recognize that economic progress in this <sup>Country must go</sup> century has ~~gone~~ hand-in-hand with progress toward economic and social justice. ~~Our nation is better and stronger because of it.~~ ~~And we are capable of much greater progress on both counts.~~

As long as I am President, ~~there will be nothing less~~ ~~than a full commitment to enforcing~~ <sup>e</sup> civil rights laws that enable people to work up to their full capacity, to find decent housing, to eat in any restaurant, to vote ~~freely~~, and to be free from abuse.

~~[ I have a full commitment to protect the civil rights of people who encounter police brutality. Our state and local police perform their jobs professionally and often heroically, but there are times when police authority is abused. If that abuse is in violation of a Federally-protected civil right, no matter who is the victim, no matter who is the violator -- I will make certain that our laws are fully enforced. We have instituted a dual prosecution policy, and that policy has helped us bring justice to all Americans. ]~~

of my commitment

As a result, all Americans now know that the Government of the United States is on their side. ~~That is where I am determined, with your help, to keep it.~~

I am equally determined to ensure justice in the Federal court system. With your help, ~~we~~ I have quadrupled the number of Hispanic Federal judges -- <sup>appointing</sup> more than ~~any~~ <sup>all</sup> other Presidents <sup>combined,</sup> and I am not done yet.

These are lifetime appointments, and these judges will exert their influence on our system of justice for generations to come.

9/10

I am committed to securing for all children in America an equal chance to learn, to dream, to excel.

<sup>to our children</sup> education of ~~the young~~ is the ruin of nations. 10 (11)

That is why <sup>up</sup> my ~~1981 request for~~ Federal aid to education is <sup>up</sup> 73 percent ~~higher~~ ~~three-quarters higher~~ ~~than the last~~ request of ~~the Ford Administration.~~ <sup>my predecessor.</sup> We <sup>have</sup> increased education spending for Title I, Head Start, college student aid -- program after program that help disadvantaged children get an equal education.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: STU EIZENSTAT Stu

SUBJECT: Hispanic Caucus Dinner Speech

As we discussed this afternoon, I suggest -- and Al McDonald, Dick Moe and Bob Beckel concur -- that you include a reference in your speech tonight to Reagan's apparent support for a bracero program. I suggest language along the following lines:

"The undocumented aliens issue is one of the most difficult and important facing our Nation. That is why I have asked Father Hesburgh to head the Presidential Commission developing recommendations on this subject. I have not seen their recommendations yet, but I can assure you that under my Administration there will never be a bracero program.

~~And my position is the same after your applause as before.~~ * 13

not

* Reference to Reagan's claiming that the applause muffled his original statement of his position. 14

That is also why I have a firm commitment to bilingual education. Too many children do not learn, too many are scared to speak up in class, too many drop out of schools where that do not speak their language, is not spoken.

11/12

Working together, we have doubled requested funds for bilingual programs in the past three years.

Let me add that I stand with you against the ~~Republican-~~ Ashbrook amendment, which would ~~attempt to prevent the Department of Education from~~ enforcing regulations on bilingual programs, -- even after the Supreme Court has ruled that children have a right to such programs. This ~~The Ashbrook Amendment~~ is a disgraceful attempt to play politics with the civil rights of our children, and I, will work ~~am working~~ you with Congress to defeat it. 12/13

Insert

must have
I ~~am also committed to appoint~~ government officials who understand the diverse needs of our people. I have ~~Since taking~~ ~~office, we~~ appointed more than 200 Hispanic Americans to high

Electrostatic Copy Made

posts in my Administration, more than any other president.

Names like Castillo, Hidalgo, Garcia, Torres, Rios,

~~They occupy some of our most important posts. I appointed Marrero, Olivarez are heard in the top Leonel Castillo as the first Hispanic ever to serve as Councils of government, working with me and Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.
with Hispanic Caucus members to give all I appointed his successor, Matt Garcia, and we are working to Americans a better life.~~

~~break the Republican effort to hold up his confirmation. I appointed Victor Marrera as Undersecretary of Housing and Urban Development, and Richard Rios as Director of the Community Services Administration.~~

14 | 15

I also made a commitment to achieving <sup>ing</sup> an accurate census, and ~~With your help, I believe we will have an accurate final count.~~

now
~~But~~ we must begin the next step -- ensuring fair apportionment of legislative districts to allow full participation of Hispanic citizens in our system of government -- especially in Congress. I urge you to take up that challenge at once.

15 | 14

Finally, I ~~have been deeply committed to the pursuit of~~ peace. For the past 3 1/2 years, our nation has been at peace.

We have pursued peace not only for ourselves, but for other nations. We took the historic step toward a new relationship, based on mutual respect, by concluding the Panama Canal Treaty.

In the Middle East, we brought a historic treaty to two ancient enemies, Egypt and Israel. We have once again raised the banner of human rights and given hope to all those who love freedom.

16 } 17

Our principles of human rights extend to the people of Puerto Rico and their right to self-determination. I have made my position clear, and I will repeat it tonight.

I support decision
~~My Administration will respect the wishes~~ of the people of Puerto Rico about their future status, ~~Whatever the~~ ~~decision, it will be theirs. My Administration will work~~
~~with Puerto Rican leaders to assure that the decision is~~ ~~made democratically and peacefully. I will support that decision,~~ and I will urge Congress to support it.

When over a hundred thousand Cubans fled Castro's oppression, ~~we did not turn our backs on these desperate people. We have~~ we treated them with compassion and decency -- at the same time trying to enforce our laws against those who would exploit the yearnings of divided families.

faced ~~We have now assumed the difficult task of resettlement
— a task not yet complete.~~ We have not forgotten the burden on communities affected by the sudden influx of Cuban refugees.
We are committed to providing the assistance needed by communities to ensure a workable, humane resettlement.

19

In our own Hemisphere, the United States was once identified with the staus quo and with dictatorships -- more interested in stability than in justice. Now ~~[Under my Administration]~~ we are once more identified with ideals -- human rights, social justice, peaceful, democratic change. Because we have shown respect, we now can receive it. This has done more to enhance U.S. influence in Latin America than <sup>just</sup> ~~brandishing~~ <sup>a</sup> ~~the~~ big stick.

I am especially pleased with the <sup>mutually beneficial</sup> ~~increasingly respectful~~ relationship we are developing with Mexico. I was proud to appoint the first Mexican-American ever to serve as our ambassador to Mexico, Julian Nava.

~~Our commitment to peace has also meant a commitment to a strong defense. To meet the Soviet military threat, we have increased defense spending and improved our strength and readiness. Our military strength is second to none.~~

<sup>tonight I met</sup>
Let me add that ~~tomorrow, I will meet at the White~~ ~~House~~ with six of the 36 Hispanic-American recipients of the Congressional Medal of Honor. ~~This ceremony is part of our~~ ~~effort during Hispanic Heritage Week to highlight the many~~ ~~contributions of Hispanic Americans. It will also help remind~~ <sup>These heroes</sup>

of the great contributions of Hispanic-Americans,

us, what ~~their~~ sacrifices, ~~demand~~ <sup>may</sup> ~~of us.~~ <sup>sometimes,</sup> ~~be~~ <sup>required of us</sup> ~~all of us~~

We keep our

~~Behind every one of these specific commitments is an a~~

~~underpinning~~ commitment to freedom, to justice, to equal opportunity. 21 ~~They are alive and fresh today because of us --~~ because we have devoted ourselves to putting them in practice.

[ Contrast our commitment to justice and fairness with the stated positions of the Republican nominee. It is a stark contrast, indeed.

He opposed the 1964 Civil Rights Act. He opposes the Equal Rights Amendment. He opposes our welfare reform proposal.
He opposes national health insurance. He opposed Medicare. He opposes bilingual education. He opposed the unionizing of farm workers. He opposes affirmative action programs. He opposed the Panama Canal Treaties. He opposes the Windfall Profits Tax. He proposes instead tax windfalls for the wealthy.

*Admit like any of this. Let Salent hit at the end
a fairly nmp speech*

Throughout his campaign, he has promised us a future of freedom. But it is a bleak and heartless freedom that only the rich and powerful could enjoy -- the freedom for the comfortable to ignore suffering, to evade responsibility, to tolerate inequities.

We face the real possibility that the Republican candidate will win -- unless we turn out the majority of American voters who share the values of the Democratic Party. We need to work together to bring Hispanic voters to the polls, especially in key states. I ask for your help tonight to keep alive the future we have all dreamed about.]

21 Let us remember the words of Robert Kennedy, when he said, "Nations around the world look to us for leadership not merely by strength of arms but by the strength of our convictions. We not only want, but we need the free exercise of rights by every American. We need the strength and talent of every American. We need, in short, to set an example of freedom for the world -- and for ourselves."

not yet realized all

We have ~~far to go before realizing~~ our dreams for the American people. Yet we have come too far already to turn back. We have worked hard together and put our hearts into this struggle.

Let's rededicate ourselves tonight to that struggle. Let's join together in making this great country of ours even greater.
