SUBJ: CSA HISPANIC HERITAGE WEEK CELEBRATION

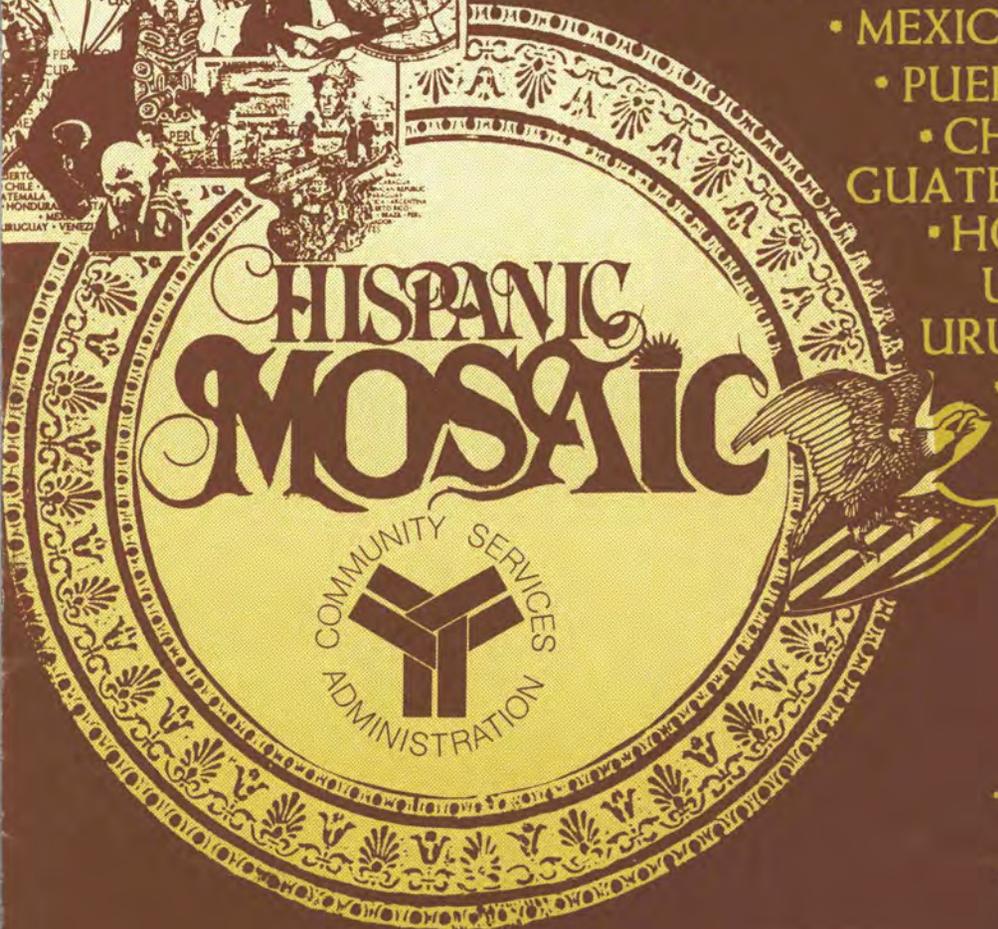

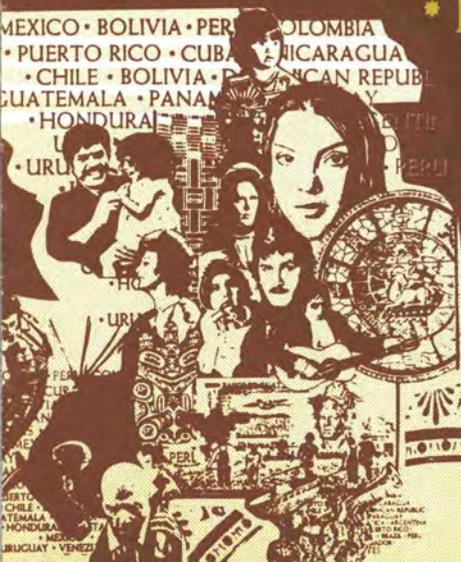

In accordance with the President's Proclamation 4776 of July 31, 1980, CSA celebrated Hispanic Heritage Week using the general theme - "Hispanic Mosaic, A Day in the Market Place".

CSA Director, Richard J. Rios, gave the opening remarks and Honorable Edward R. Roybal, Congressman from California, was the Keynote Speaker. The Executive Director of the Hispanic Coalition, Jose Garza, was the principal speaker.

Other activities included a panel discussion on Hispanics in Government, which included representatives from the Department of Justice, the Department of Agriculture, and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission; and a typical day in a Latin American Market.

CSA believes that the week's activities were successful in raising the consciousness of the important role Hispanics play in our government and society.
