EYES ONLY

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

From: Charlie Schultze CS

Subject: The CPI for November (to be released
Tuesday at 9:00 a.m.)

The CPI in November rose 1.0 percent (12.5 percent annual rate). A sharp rise in mortgage interest rates was the most important factor. Excluding mortgage interest the CPI rose 0.8 percent.

Food prices rose 1.0 percent; meats, poultry and fish were up 1.5 percent and sugar 3.3 percent. Energy price rises, at 0.3 percent, continued moderate. But used car prices jumped 5.1 percent.

The series we closely watch as an indicator of the underlying inflation rate, "all items excluding food, energy, housing and home finance costs" rose 0.7 percent (an annual rate of 8.6 percent), about the same as last month.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Frank Moore FM
Dan Tate

SUBJECT: Interim Appointment for U.S. District Judge for Hawaii

As you know, Senator Danny Inouye very badly wants you to make an interim appointment of the man he nominated for the U.S. District Judgeship in Hawaii.

A strong case can be made for this course of action due to the unusual circumstances which exist in the case of Judge Heen.

According to the U.S. Judicial Council and based on the territorial and caseload size, Hawaii should be served by three district judges. Presently, there are only two such judgeships and only one of those is filled. That particular judge's caseload is so onerous that during the last several months he has suffered a breakdown which his doctors attribute to overwork. His caseload has been so great that for the last year-and-a-half he has only heard criminal cases; his civil calendar has not been attended to at all.

If an interim appointment is not made it could be another year before the judgeship is filled. It is quite possible that Judge Heen would be nominated by President Reagan since any nominee would have to be approved by both U.S. Senators who are Democrats and since we understand that Hawaii Republicans signed off on Judge Heen in the first place. These circumstances exist in only one other judgeship situation left unresolved by the U.S. Senate. In every case except Ohio, there is at least one Republican Senator from the state involved. Naturally, the incoming Administration would seek the recommendations of those Republican Senators for judgeships in their states.

There is also little doubt that Judge Heen was not cleared by the Judiciary Committee in large part because Senator Inouye was openly and actively supportive of you during the primary campaign. Ostensibly, the Committee did not take final action on this nominee for 11 months because of allegations of organized crime connections which arose during the confirmation hearings. Such allegations were made, but they were thoroughly investigated and have been laid aside.

I recommend that you make this interim appointment. Danny Inouye is the best friend you have in the United States Senate and he will continue to be a friend. I am confident that had he not been so loyal and so open in his support of you, this judgeship problem would not have arisen in the first place. He needs to have this matter resolved in his favor by you.

Zbig,

A reminder: Ask the President, when you see him tomorrow morning, if I can join the meeting that he, the Vice President, Jim McIntyre, and Stu Eizenstat are having Thursday at 1 p.m. to review the FY 1982 budget.

Argument: I should be there to represent the White House staff concerned with international affairs, just as Stu is there to represent the White House staff concerned with domestic affairs.

Precedent: At the comparable meeting last year, both Stu and I were present.

Facts: Jim McIntyre says that the President doesn't want anyone else there. He's right in not wanting outside international agencies (State, DOD, etc.), just as he doesn't want outside domestic agencies. But White House staff should be included on the international, as on the domestic, side.

Dear Mr. Crane:

Frank Moore has told me he has applied for admission to the 1981 Spring term of Harvard University's Advanced Management Program.

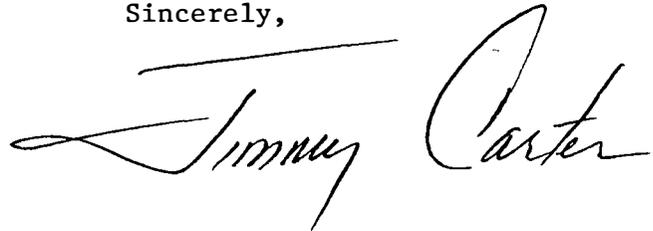

I have known Frank since 1966 and have seen him perform successfully various functions ranging from economic development planning to political management.

Frank was my closest aide during the last two years of my term as Governor of Georgia and served as my Executive Secretary. He assumed major responsibilities in my 1976 Presidential campaign as National Finance Director and as Deputy Campaign Manager for the South. As Assistant to the President for Congressional Liaison, Frank has served well both my Administration and our nation.

I have seen Frank nurture his skills as a capable manager and demonstrate his ability to operate under extreme pressure and diverse circumstances. Acting on my behalf, he has repeatedly forged coalitions of individuals and groups from across the political spectrum and maintained those consensus positions throughout their implementation.

I recommend Frank Moore without reservation and I know that he will bring a unique perspective to the program, since he has been intimately involved in both domestic and foreign policy decisions in my Administration.

Sincerely,
