MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT:

I had a very good meeting last week with Tom Vail, publisher and editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer. He once met with you in Atlanta while you were governor.

Tom is very sympathetic to you and to your programs and would like to have a one-on-one meeting with you on a background basis. I told him that I would suggest that you work it into your schedule.

I know that you have little time, but I was struck by the sincerity of this man. I also read some of the articles he has done on public figures and they seemed fair in content.

Respectfully,

Griffin B. Bell
