To Sylvester Stallone

We saw Rocky in
The White House last night and my family
& staff agree that it is one of the best movies we've ever seen.

Congratulations on a superb film.

Rick --

I can't remember if this was a Universal film, or what.

However, I'm sure Valenti at the film institute or whatever it is, could help. When you find the address, please send me a copy of this note, and address.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FEBRUARY 22, 1977

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced that he will nominate Mary E. King to be deputy director of ACTION. In addition, Ms. King was appointed special advisor to the President on women. The President indicated he would continue to counsel with her as he had in the past, and would, from time to time, send her as his representative to meetings pertaining to women.

Ms. King is the president of Mary King Associates, Inc., which she formed in 1972. The firm provides voluntary organizations and government agencies with research, technical assistance, planning and policy studies in health care, criminal justice, and drug and alcohol abuse.

In the 1976 Carter presidential campaign, Ms. King served as national director of the Committee of 51.3%, named for the proportion of females in the population of the United States. She was also then-Gov. Carter's advisor on women, and steered the Health Policy Task Force.

She is a founder and president of the National Association of Women Business Owners. She is a member of the board of the Women's Action Alliance and served on the Committee on Women and Employment of the U.S. National Commission for International Women's Year. She is also a member of the American Public Health Association Task Force on Jails and Prisons.

Ms. King was born in New York City on July 30, 1940. She received a B.A. degree in 1962 from Ohio Wesleyan University.

In 1962, she was a human relations specialist under a Marshall Field Foundation grant to the College Division of the YWCA in Atlanta. From 1963 to 1965, she was assistant director of communications for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in Atlanta, Ga. and Jackson, Miss.

From 1968 to 1972 Ms. King served as a project officer with the Office of Health Affairs of the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity, and developed prototype health programs for rural and urban low-income areas.

She is married to Dr. Peter G. Bourne, a psychiatrist who serves as special assistant to the President for mental health and drug abuse. They reside in Washington, D.C.
