Dear President Carter:

All of us are pulling for you and your staff to stymie the inflation problem.

Somehow we must develop a "positive" psychology that it can-- and will-- be controlled. You folks are on the right track, in our judgment...

Hope to see you in Memphis next weekend. I am going as a Replacement Delegate from Atlanta's Fifth District.

Kind regards to Mrs. Carter and your family. Respectfully,

Sue and Stanley Jones, Sr.
"Hello" to Stan, Jr., should your paths cross there..

Let's Take Carter's Castor Oil; It's Good for Us

The Editors: The arm-chaired, instant, do-goodist economists are surfacing everywhere these days. But, to paraphrase Harry Truman, the country needs those "one-handed" economists. None of those who advise "On the one hand, this will happen; on the other hand, that will occur—take your choice."

This leads to a plan to give President Carter's plan to control inflation a chance to succeed. And further, to commend both Durwood McAlister's column in the same vein and John Crown's enlightening confession that "we are all in this fight together." (That is the identical message this writer suggested to Col. Crown when President Ford was riding the bucking horse and greatest thief of all, inflation.)

May I also suggest that giving the program a chance denotes an active support of—

—Not just sitting back, hoping it will be the needed weapon to wage a war against inflation!

Admittedly, it seems to go against human nature to hope that "volunteerism," without penalties and rewards, will work. Yet, possibly there are enough built-in disciplines and "cur-" to begin slowing and controlling this evil.

Surely, we are wise enough— and can discipline ourselves— to meet the challenge. Too, we must be compassionate enough to make sure the painful process is not shouldered by those who are the most vulnerable— and thus less able to stand additional suffering.

We know that we can count on Bob Akerman to keep us on track with his scholarly and keen analyses and suggestions as the program unfolds. Mr. Akerman is not a newcomer, two-handed economist. He has been struggling, almost single-handedly, with the miserable science (and art) of economy for years...

President Carter has fished the bullet, one-handedly. Let's join him in taking a healthy bite, even though it will be distasteful.

As grandmother used to say when dispensing a dose of castor oil: "Take it, it is good for you."

... More than likely this decay of Atlanta the direct cause of Carrollton's most serious problem—overdevelopment. It seems that carpetbagging, fast-back artist in America, has descended upon our once fair city to turning the lovely rustic environment and green, into a bowling green, and Astroturf. Perhaps by Atlanta bankers who are writing on their graffiti...

So I hope you re thasments for further ways...

A Tangible for Peace

The Editors: For one steeped in realpolitik, Mr. Crown missed the mark in his column, "Sud! Withdrawl." For $11 billion he's content to let two countries shed more blood after they've spent a heavy portion of their national treasure and human resources in previous wars that have proved costly and inconclusive. For all his fulminations, Mr. Crown has no idea other than that $1 billion is too much.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: JERRY RAFSHOON

We are sending you a third draft of the Memphis speech. It is a shorter version and we are passing it along to you. Greg and I will work on it tonight also and have our comments to you tomorrow.

We have had no hard news to make and the success of this speech has to depend on its tone and inspiration. It also has to resolve somewhat the questions that the press is encouraging about where are the minds and hearts of the President and the Party.
Enclosed is draft 3. Acsah Nesmith made numerous contributions.
"WE ARE SOLVING AMERICA'S PROBLEMS; WE ARE UNLOCKING THE GREATNESS OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE"

Remarks of the President at the Mid-Term Democratic Conference December 8, 1978

It is an honor and a privilege to speak before the most open, honest, decent, and progressive political party in the world today, the Democratic Party.

When the Depression shattered the lives and spirit of the American people, Franklin Roosevelt and our Democratic Party led America back to economic security and hope. When the future of democracy in post-war Europe was in doubt, Harry Truman and our Democratic Party ensured the survival of freedom through the Marshall Plan. And when an uncontrolled nuclear arms race threatened mass destruction, John F. Kennedy and our Democratic Party took the first, crucial steps through the Test Ban Treaty towards sanity and peace.

I am proud to be a member of the Democratic Party.

I am proud to be a member of the Party of Adlai Stevenson, Lyndon Johnson, and our beloved Hubert Humphrey.

We Democrats share a vision of the greatness of America. Ours is a nation created not just by geography, but on the principle that all people should be free. It was founded on faith in the good sense and basic decency of average men and women. We are a pioneer people who learned early that both our survival and our dreams depend on courage and hard work and caring for each other. America's earliest ideals of liberty and equal justice remain the most revolutionary ideals in the world today.

Our people never lost that understanding, but for too many years our leaders did not reflect their faith. The challenge of leadership is to tap the greatness of a people, but leadership failed that challenge.

The last decade was one of the most painful in our history. We lived through a tragic war abroad and bitter division at home. We saw millions of Americans on unemployment lines with broken hopes and broken dreams. We saw rising inflation destroy savings and hard work. In our government, we saw spying and secrecy and our highest public trust betrayed. Let us never witness such a decade in America again.

We pledged new leadership in 1976. We promised open, honest, efficient, compassionate government. We pledged to face the difficult, complex problems that had been ducked and ignored for too long. And we pledged to speak to our deepest values as a people and the highest aspirations of mankind.

Great challenges remain. But the best in the American spirit is rising again. We are moving forward steadily as one people, North and South, tackling the problems which we face. There is new confidence and hope. Around the world, America has regained its special place of pride.

Government should be the highest expression of a free peoples' will. When it operates in secret; when it is unnecessarily complicated, and bloated, and impossible to understand; the most powerful, best financed lobbies have every advantage. The average citizens, the poor, and the weak -- who seek no special favors -- are denied their rightful voice.

We have torn down the barriers that separated Americans from their government. We have passed new ethics legislation. Today, the government of the United States belongs to the people of the United States -- not to the power brokers.

We have placed new restrictions on the use of wiretaps to protect the privacy of our people. No law-abiding American should live in fear of snooping or spying or break-ins by his government. Under this Administration, no law-abiding American will!

Instead of leadership by veto and government by stalemate we now have anew Democratic Partnership: President and Congress; Governors and Mayors; legislators and local officials. The United States Congress has rarely been led by two more able, respected, decent men - and no President has had two better allies - than Speaker of the House Tip O'Neill and Majority Leader Robert C. Byrd.

For the first time in 200 years, the Office of Vice President is a position of leadership and full responsibility. Fritz Mondale is my eyes and ears. His wisdom and experience has benefitted our country time and again, at home and abroad. Every Democrat shares my enormous respect and gratitude for the outstanding leadership of Vice President Fritz Mondale.

We have breathed new vigor, life and efficiency into the Federal bureaucracy by reforming Civil Service for the first time in 100 years. Republicans say they want to run government in the worst possible way . . . and they usually do. We are streamlining bureaucracy. We are cutting red tape, excess regulations and unneeded paperwork for small businesses.

Government cannot answer every problem or substitute for private initiative. But I have seen the power of electricity transform the life of a young farm boy in the rural South through the REA. I know what it meant to our people to eliminate malaria and typhoid; polio and rickets. I have seen and Rosalynn has seen the face of a retarded child come alive with excitement and hope after learning a new skill through a mental health program that reached out to him with love.

When government fails; when services are not delivered; when tax dollars are squandered, those who suffer most are those who are most in need. We will make government competent so it can be truly compassionate.

Every dollar lost through fraud and abuse could help to train an unemployed teenager in a skill; build a decent home for a family; or nurse an older American back to health.

As President I serve notice that this Administration will continue to root out every instance of fraud and abuse in the Federal government. We will prosecute the guilty to the full extent of the law.

We have no greater resource than the strength and genius of a free people in a free economy. We are unlocking the greatness of American free enterprise.

We have created a record 6.5 million new jobs. We have reduced unemployment more than 25 percent. We have more to do. But across America, 1.6 million men and women who were standing on unemployment lines in 1976 are supporting their families today; no longer dependent on welfare and unemployment insurance; contributing tax revenues; working with pride and self-respect because of our Democratic Partnership.

The Republicans say they are the party of work, not welfare. We Democrats have removed 450,000 Americans from the welfare rolls by putting the nation back to work.

Republicans promise tax cuts. In two years, our Democratic Partnership has cut taxes nearly $30 billion.

Republicans talk about free enterprise. We Democrats deregulated the airline industry. Let us deregulate the surface transportation industry next year.

After a Republican recession and a housing depression our economy has grown 8.7 percent. We have strengthened our dollar; two million new houses a year are being built; and corporate profits increased 37 percent. Alben Barkley was right: "If you want to live like a Republican, be sure to vote Democratic."

The previous administration straitjacketed America's farmers -- the most productive in the world -- by boosting middleman profits, embargoing their grain, and dictating their decisions. Our Democratic Partnership has begun to free their hands. American farm exports, so vital to our balance of payments, broke all records the past two years. Farm income is up 25 percent. American farmers have long deserved what they are beginning to get, a decent return for their labor.

We confronted the energy crisis which has warped our economy too long -- knowing it would not be popular because a great people do not run from their problems or mortgage their future away. Harry Truman spoke for the Democratic Party when he said: "We do not propose like some people to meet today's problems by saying they do not exist, and tomorrow's problems by wishing tomorrow would not come."

We will continue to meet the challenge of the energy crisis. I see an America of the future strong, secure, free from fear of energy shortages. I see American technology and genius harnessing solar power to millions of buildings and homes. I see a new solar energy industry creating thousands of jobs and American achievements offering hope to an energy-starved world. Will you join me in that great adventure?
The Republicans ran up the highest deficit in America's peacetime history. We have met the needs of Americans, produced real economic growth, and have already cut that deficit $30 billion. We must cut the deficit even more, and we will.

Inflation threatens all our gains and all our hopes for continued growth. Inflation is robbing those whom we want to help; those for whom we have the most concern: working families; the pensioner; the widow; the senior citizen, and the poor. It breeds a narrow politics of fear. As President, I have no higher priority today than to bring inflation under control. As Democrats we have no greater challenge.

Each of us must do our part, and government must lead. I have set out my budget goals. I am determined to meet them. Short-term sacrifices must be made. But we will make them fairly. If we err it will be to favor those who are most in need.

By joining together to control inflation now, we can begin a new era of American prosperity with stable prices; new jobs and opportunity for the unemployed; new resources to meet our problems; and new security and hope for all our people. Let us move towards that new prosperity together.

While we control inflation, we will continue steady progress in meeting human needs.

Most of us have the same dreams for our children -- the opportunity to learn in schools that challenge and nurture them; to be protected against disease; to grow up in healthy neighborhoods; to know the taste of clean water and the scent of fresh air, and the pleasure of natural beauty around them.

We want a nation, as our Constitution promises, where the only limit to our children's sights is the talent God gave them and their own determination.

In the past two years we have added more new resources to educate America's children than ever before in our history.

Across this country 500,000 more handicapped children; 200,000 more children of migrant workers; 125,000 children who speak no English will start life with a better chance because of our Democratic Party. For the first time, every young person in our country is eligible for a grant or loan to go to college or vocational school. Next year, let us give education in America the priority it deserves by creating a new Cabinet-level Department of Education.

No American family should be reduced to poverty, or bankruptcy, or be forced to go without needed health care because they cannot afford the cost. We must protect the health and pocketbooks of the American people. We must pass legislation to hold down the cost of hospital care in the Congress next year. That is an essential element in reaching the goal we share -- to protect every American through a system of national health care.

There are people in every American city who dream of raising their children in safe neighborhoods and decent housing; where teenagers can go to a job instead of a streetcorner; where there is sunlight and open spaces and green parks. Today they are not alone. The people of New York City are putting their finances in order and facing the future with hope today because of the commitment of the Democratic Party.

Federal resources are not unlimited. But we have targetted new aid. We have forged a new urban policy. Let us join together next year to bring billions in private investment to our cities and rural centers by passing a National Development Bank.

Our land and water and natural heritage is a gift we must pass on unspoiled to each new generation. We have enacted new strip-mining protection to keep our land from being ravaged. We have strengthened standards on clean water and air. We have protected _______ million acres of Alaska's most precious wilderness. This Administration will continue to keep faith with the next generation and protect our natural environment.
Our Party never stood prouder than when a Democratic President met the challenge of civil rights by proclaiming "We Shall Overcome". The civil rights revolution liberated both White and Black in America, both North and South. My commitment as President is clear. I will uphold and vigorously enforce the spirit and the letter of the civil rights laws of this land.

We have reorganized civil rights enforcement to effectively safeguard equal rights. Committed civil rights veterans head major agencies. We will not turn our back or close our eyes on nearly 200 years of systematic discrimination. This Administration will continue to defend and enforce strong and effective affirmative action programs.

Our Democratic Partnership extended the Equal Rights Amendment. Let us leave this convention united in our commitment to wipe out discrimination based on sex and make the ERA the law of the land.
The experience and wisdom of our older citizens is a priceless resource we must tap. I am proud that our Democratic Partnership struck down discrimination in employment based on age. Every retired American deserves a life of dignity free from poverty, dependence, and need. Our Democratic Partnership rescued the Social Security system from bankruptcy. No American on Social Security need live in fear today.

As we are striving to realize the promise of America's ideals at home, we are speaking and acting in support of the values we believe in as a people throughout the world. There is new confidence, new support and respect for the United States around the world today. Our NATO alliance has been strengthened. Our cooperation with our trading partners has increased.

I remember for so many years dreading sessions of the UN General Assembly because I knew the country I loved would be vilified and castigated by other nations, large and small. Today, countries of the developing world are joining with our nation in a common commitment to economic justice and development, democracy and peace. I am proud that our country and the United States Senate had the courage and vision to begin a new era of cooperation with our neighbors by ratifying the Panama Canal Treaties.

Woodrow Wilson spoke for every American when he said:
"I would rather belong to a poor nation that was free than a rich nation that had ceased to be in love with liberty."

Our nation, conceived in liberty, is standing in defense of human rights. We do not claim easy victories. But courageous individuals around the world struggling to taste the freedom we enjoy know they are not alone. Thousands of prison doors which once held innocent people have swung free. I pledge to the American people and this convention, under my Presidency, America will never be neutral in the struggle for human rights.

Today, our nation is at peace and America is a force for peace around the world. For two years not one single American has fought or died in combat anywhere. My deepest prayer as President is that when I leave this office I will be able to say no American had to go to war.
America has been a force for peace in Cyprus, Rhodesia, Nicaragua, Southern Africa, and elsewhere. We have seen the President of Egypt and the Prime Minister of Israel, after generations of war, stand before the United States Congress and clasp hands in a gesture of peace. The road to peace in the Middle East is difficult, frustrating, with deadlocks and delays. But I am confident that after five wars and 3,000 years of hatred, a Treaty of Peace, just and durable peace, between the nation of Israel and the nation of Egypt will be signed.

We are striving to reduce our sales of conventional arms. I would rather other peoples see the letters "USA" printed on a bushel of American wheat than the bottom of a rifle butt.

Our nation's defense forces are stronger, more ready, better equipped, and better trained than ever in our history. My first career was military -- in our submarine service. I have no higher commitment than to protect the security of our nation. America's defenses will remain second to none. America's defense capability will be so strong and clear and ready, no nation will ever be tempted to test it.
But strong defenses are not enough in a world of growing nuclear arsenals. Our children must not grow up in a world where nuclear weapons are easily available to dozens of nations, large and small, stable or unstable, or crackpot terrorist groups. We acted last year to halt the spread of weapons-grade plutonium. We must prevent the proliferation of nuclear weapons around the world.

An arms race out of control, pitting superpower against superpower, in an ever more costly, unending race for greater nuclear arsenals escalates the risks of confrontation and nuclear war through madness, accident or fatal miscalculation.

We will soon sign a new Strategic Arms Limitation Agreement with the Soviet Union. We will only sign an agreement that protects and enhances our security with adequate safeguards subject to verification.

Our generation must turn back the momentum of the arms race. I will depend on your help. Together, let us protect the security of our nation and the future of all the world's children by ratifying a sound, responsible, new SALT Treaty.
As Democrats, and as Americans, we face great challenges and new responsibilities in the months and years to come. But we have met great challenges before, as a Party and a people.

As we meet in this convention we are proud of our heritage as Democrats. We are confident of our ability; and we are ready to lead. We will stay true to the promise of the Democratic Party. We will meet our urgent responsibilities. We will show compassion. We will strive for competence. And we will continue to dream great dreams.

With the courage and the common sense of the American people let us make this nation what our founders intended -- a land of liberty and opportunity for all, proud of its heritage of hope and human dignity, with the potential for greatness that only a free people can fulfill.

Thank you.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

From: Charlie Schultze

Subject: Employment and Unemployment in November

Tomorrow (Friday, December 8) at 9:00 A.M., the Bureau of Labor Statistics will release figures on employment and unemployment in November. The numbers can only be characterized as amazing.

Total civilian employment (as measured in the household sample survey) rose 543,000 last month, another very large increase. Nonfarm employment went up 658,000. Since the labor force went up 585,000, the overall unemployment rate in November was unchanged at 5.8 percent. Black unemployment edged up somewhat, (from 11.4 percent in October to 11.8 percent in November) as did the unemployment rate for women both white and black. Most of the rise in employment (457 thousand) was among adult males.

Large increases in employment in the household sample survey sometimes reflects no more than a statistical aberration. But there is ample evidence in the statistics coming out tomorrow of very strong demands for labor. For example, the number of employees on nonfarm payrolls (an independent series) rose 467,000; moreover, the length of the average work week in manufacturing rose significantly. And in manufacturing industries aggregate hours worked increased 1.6 percent in November, following a 0.9 percent increase in October.

Increases in employment and hours worked of these magnitudes are normally associated with very large increases in output, and they would mean that businesses were very optimistic about the outlook for growth in the economy. But they are occurring now in the context of widespread expectations of a slowdown next year, and a release yesterday (about which we reported to you) suggesting a sluggish pace of business capital spending in the first half of 1979.
Frankly, we are puzzled. It may be that businesses are optimistic about the near-term outlook and pessimistic about the more distant future -- so that they are hiring additional workers for higher production now while going slowly on long-term investment. Weak productivity growth may also be partly responsible -- this would account for large increases in employment and hours while real output is growing moderately.

It will take time to sort out those possibilities. We will be following the incoming data carefully to make as accurate an assessment as we can before your final decisions on the 1980 budget have to be made.

FROM: FRANK MOORE

SUBJECT: SPEAKER O'NEILL

The upcoming session is obviously going to be very difficult on the budget. The Speaker is flying to Memphis with you tomorrow on Air Force One. I suggest that you use this opportunity to talk with him in a serious and confidential way about the budget and the problems you know he is going to encounter. You should discuss the future of the Democratic Party and the nation as the President sees it and ask for his support during the upcoming session.

The Speaker continues to talk about the need to cut the deficit by $30 billion, but he has not focused on where the cuts will come from. I am less concerned about the Speaker than the rest of the Democratic leadership, who are much easier targets for constant and intensive lobbying both at home and in Washington by special forces—labor, cities, health groups, transportation, public works, blacks, women, etc.—that are at work on them.

If you feel that you have had a satisfactory meeting with the Speaker, you should conclude the meeting by suggesting that you meet with Wright, Brademas, Rostenkowski, Giaimo and Foley to discuss how we as partners are going to handle the political problems that the budget constraints generate. By this, I mean a leader-to-leader political talk and not a presentation of charts by OMB. These guys have already begun to be lobbied by the special interest groups who are anticipating cuts (not even knowing what is in the budget), and I am afraid that if we do not do something soon, we will have lost a large part of the battle before we even begin.

SUBJECT: Proposed Phone Conversation with President of Upper Volta (U)

State has recommended that you agree to talk on the phone for a few minutes with President Lamizana of Upper Volta on December 10, the twentieth anniversary of Upper Volta's status as a Republic.

I support the recommendation on two grounds:

1. Upper Volta has just held a successful multi-party election and has one of the few open political systems in Africa. There is very little that we can do to reward good human rights performers; this would be a good chance to do something.

2. Your mother was very hospitably received in Upper Volta during her Sahel trip.

If you agree, we will have State set up the details.

The late Joseph A. Blair, who served as union president until Watts’ election in 1974, called on Watts in 1956 to serve as Assistant to the President – a position that Watts held until his election as a CWA Executive Vice President in 1965.

Throughout his career as a union officer, Watts’ key union activity has been collective bargaining. He was instrumental in the formation of CWA bargaining strategy that led eventually to national bargaining with AT&T in 1974.

CWA, representing 600,000 workers, is the largest communications union in the world.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT
FROM: STU EISENSTAT
SUBJECT: Reference to D.C. Voting Representation Amendment in your Memphis Speech

I understand you have omitted reference to the D.C. Amendment in your speech. I urge you to reconsider that action for the following reasons:

-- To mention your support for the ERA and not to voice support for the D.C. Amendment will be a conspicuous omission and will be seen as a gratuitous slap at a black constituency.

-- The D.C. Amendment has wide support among the black leadership throughout the nation and it is a long-time goal of the Democratic Party.

-- If the Amendment fails in upcoming legislative battles, you will be leaving yourself open to charges that you failed to give it your full support.

-- Your leadership helped pass the Amendment in Congress. It would be a political plus for you to remind Democrats of that fact.

-- At a time when the black community is deeply disturbed about upcoming budget cuts, I do not think you should risk alienating them further politically by failing to reiterate support for an amendment to which you are already publicly committed.

FROM: JACK WATSON
       BRUCE KIRSCHENBAUM

SUBJECT: Proclamation Re Energy Expo '82 in Knoxville

December 4, 1978

In order for the State Department to issue invitations to foreign countries to attend and participate in Energy Expo '82, it is necessary for you to so instruct the Department or issue a proclamation. Although technically a proclamation is not necessary, it has been done in the past because the Expo uses your statement in its publicity.

The Expo officials are meeting in Paris this week with the Bureau of International Expositions and therefore they need this declaration. The State Department is ready to issue the invitations upon your signing the proclamation.

In the near future, Juanita Kreps will be recommending someone to be named Commissioner General of the U. S. Government for Energy Expo '82. We have discussed this with OMB to insure that the funds for this staff are included within the budget allowance for the Commerce Department. (These funds along with planning assistance for the U. S. Pavilion will total $500,000 in an FY 1979 supplemental and will go up to Congress with your FY 1980 budget.) We will make sure Arnie Miller is involved in the selection.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Presidential Proclamation on Knoxville's International Energy Exposition in 1982 and Request that Invitations be Issued

As you know, an International Exposition, with the theme "Energy Turns the World," is scheduled to be held in Knoxville, Tennessee in 1982. This event was accorded Federal recognition on April 27, 1977, and was subsequently officially registered by the Bureau of International Expositions as a Special Category Exposition.

In granting Federal recognition to Energy Expo '82, you requested that this Department monitor its progress in order to determine whether the organizers were continuing to take the steps necessary to assure the successful development and implementation of the project. Based on my review of the progress which has been made to date, I believe that it would now be appropriate for you to issue a Proclamation on Energy Expo '82 and to instruct the Secretary of State to invite foreign nations to participate. In support of my recommendation, I am enclosing the details of the financial plan submitted by the organizers, and drafts of an appropriate Proclamation and Invitation to Foreign Chiefs of Mission.

If you agree with my recommendation, it will also be necessary to appoint a Commissioner General of the United States Government for Energy Expo '82 in the near future and to prepare for Federal participation in the event. My staff is working on these matters and will work closely with the organizers to ensure the success of this important national event.

REMARKS OF THE PRESIDENT
AT THE MID-TERM DEMOCRATIC CONFERENCE
MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE
DECEMBER 8, 1978

It is an honor and a privilege to speak before the most open, honest, compassionate, and progressive political party in the world today ... the Democratic Party.

We are the oldest continuing political party in the world. And after the American people spoke, last month, we are once again the majority political party in the United States.

Ours is a party of practical dreamers. Thomas Jefferson conceived of a nation as no nation had ever tried to be dedicated to human fulfillment, where individual liberty was guaranteed. But Thomas Jefferson also invented a better plow, founded a university, collected a national library, planned beautiful cities, and mapped the wilderness, and invented a better plow.

Time and again in our history, the Democratic Party real

has given new life and new meaning to our nation's oldest dreams.

When the Depression robbed a generation of Americans of a lifetime of savings, and hard work, Franklin Roosevelt's

New Deal restored economic security and his vision brought a devastated Europe was threatened with new hope. When an uncontrolled arms race threatened the economic chaos, political fragmentation and alien ideologies, Harry devastation of nuclear war, the bold leadership of John Truman's Marshall Plan and NATO sustained and strengthened our crucial alliance.

Kennedy's Test Ban Treaty took the first, crucial steps toward peace. When Black Americans challenged our nation's conscience to fulfill the historic pledge of equal rights, Lyndon Johnson

Democrats answered "We Shall Overcome" and wrote the promise of equal opportunity into law.

I am proud to be a member of the Democratic Party.

John Kennedy

I am proud to belong to the party of Adlai Stevenson,

Harry Truman, and Hubert Humphrey.
We Democrats share with the founders of this nation a faith in the good sense and decency of average men and women. We are a pioneer people who learned early that our survival and our dreams depend on hard work and courage and caring for each other. America's founding principle — that all people are born free — remains the most revolutionary idea in the world today.

The dreams, the courage, the ideals of the American people have never been lost. But for too many years, our leaders did not reflect their faith. The challenge to government in America is to tap the greatness in a free people; but government failed that challenge.

We have passed through a painful decade — a tragic war abroad and bitter division at home; millions in unemployment lines and the highest inflation since the Civil War; break-ins and buggings, and our nation's highest public trust betrayed. Let us never witness such a decade in America again.
For too many years, the most open society in history had a government that operated in secret. We pledged an open government in 1976 which the American people could trust.

When government operates in the shadows, it is unnecessarily complicated, bloated, and impossible to understand, then the best financed, most powerful lobbies have every advantage. Average citizens, the poor, and the weak, who seek no special favors, are denied their rightful voice. We have torn down the barriers between Americans and their government. We have passed new ethics legislation. The government of the United States today belongs to the people of the United States -- not to the power brokers.

We have restricted the use of wiretaps. No law-abiding American should live in fear that his government will open his mail, break into his home, or eavesdrop on his private conversations. Under this Administration, we will honor personal privacy.

Instead of leadership by veto and government by stalemate we have a new Democratic Partnership: President and Congress, Governors and Mayors; legislators and local officials. The Congress has rarely had more able, respected leadership, and no President has had two better allies than Speaker Tip O'Neill and Majority Leader Robert C. Byrd.

For the first time in 200 years, the nation's second highest office is a position of full responsibility. Fritz Mondale is my eyes and ears. His wisdom and experience have benefitted our country time and again, at home and abroad.

I know each of you shares my deep respect and gratitude for the leadership of Vice President Mondale.

Two years ago, the most productive people in the world were governed by a wasteful and inefficient bureaucracy. Republicans said they wanted to run government in the worst possible way, and that is exactly what they did. We pledged to have government as good as the American people, and that is our goal. What we are doing.

We are cutting red tape. We have thrown out ridiculous
Two years ago, the most productive people in the world were governed by a wasteful and inefficient bureaucracy.

Republicans say they want to run government in the worst possible way, and that is exactly what they did.

Democrats do not believe government should solve every problem or substitute for private initiative. But I have seen the power of electricity through the REA transform the life of a young farm boy in the rural south. I know what it meant to our people to eliminate typhoid and malaria; polio and rickets. I have seen, and Rosalyn has seen, a retarded youngster come alive with excitement and pride after learning a new skill because a mental health program reached out to him with love.

When government fails to deliver promised services; when red tape, paperwork, and bureaucracy waste tax dollars and eat up time, those who suffer are those who depend on government the most. We are cutting red tape, throwing out ridiculous regulations, and eliminating millions of hours of paperwork. We have breathed new energy and initiative into the federal civil service for the first time in 100 years. We Democrats are making government competent so it can be truly compassionate, and we will achieve both those goals.

Those who rob from government through theft, fraud, and abuse steal precious resources that could have helped give a child of poverty a head start; train an unemployed teenager for a job; build a decent home for a family; provide legal services for the poor; or nurse an older American back to health. They steal hard earned tax dollars from every steel worker, store clerk, teacher, and farmer. This administration, and our new Inspector Generals, will continue to root out every instance of abuse, and fraud and we will prosecute the guilty to the full extent of the law.
home for a family; or nurse an older American back to health.

We have passed new Inspector General legislation. I pledge to you that my Administration will continue to root our every instance of fraud and abuse in the Federal government, and we will prosecute the guilty to the full extent of the law.

Two years ago, our free enterprise system was hobbled by massive unemployment, inflation, and an energy crisis that grew worse each passing year. We have confronted the energy crisis, and we are beginning to get it under control. Harry Truman spoke for every Democrat when he said: "We do not propose, like some people, to meet today's problems by saying they do not exist, and tomorrow's problems by wishing tomorrow would not come."

If we join together as a people, I see an America of the future strong and secure, free from fear of energy shortages. I see American genius and technology harnessing solar power for millions of buildings and homes.
industry creating thousands of new jobs. And I see America's achievements offering hope to an energy-starved world. Will you join me in that great adventure?

In the last two years, we have created 6.5 million new jobs, an all time record. We have cut unemployment more than 25 percent. The Republicans say they favor work, not welfare. But we Democrats have reduced the welfare rolls by 1.3 million Americans by producing new jobs. We have saved more than $20 billion in welfare and unemployment insurance.

We still have more to do. But today our Democratic Partnership is putting America back to work.

A Republican recession and housing depression have Economic growth is up 8.7 percent. We are building two million new houses every year. And corporate profits have increased 37 percent. Alben Barkley was right: "If you want to live like a Republican, be sure to vote Democratic."

A Republican administration squeezed America's farmers -- the most productive in the world -- by boosting middleman profits, embargoing their grain, and dictating their decisions.

We have ended embargoes; passed a new farm bill; and our Democratic Partnership has untied the farmers' hands. Farm exports, so vital to our balance of trade, broke all records the past two years. Farm income is up 25 percent. American farmers have long deserved what they are beginning to get -- a decent, fair income for their labor.

For the first time in 40 years, we have deregulated a major industry. Now the airlines are making more money. More Americans are flying. And they are paying less. Now that's free enterprise! Next year let us lower freight costs for all Americans by deregulating the surface transportation industry.

Republicans promise tax cuts. Democrats cut taxes nearly $25 billion. The Republicans left us the biggest budget deficit in American history. We have added new resources for human needs; strengthened our dollar; and cut that deficit $30 billion. We must cut them even more, and we will.
For inflation threatens all our gains and all our hopes for continued growth. Inflation is robbing those whom we most want to help: working families; the pensioner; the widow, and the poor. It breeds a narrow politics of fear. It is an illusion to believe we can preserve a commitment to compassionate, progressive government if we fail to bring inflation under control.

Each of us must do our part, but government must lead.

I have set out my budget goals. I am determined to meet them. Short-term sacrifices must be made. But we will make them fairly. If we err, it will be on the side of those who are most in need.

By joining together to control inflation now, we can lay the foundation for a new era of growth and prosperity in which all Americans can share: with stable prices so Americans can plan with confidence; with new jobs and opportunity; new resources to meet our pressing problems, new security and hope.
As President, I have no higher priority today then to bring inflation under control. As Democrats, we will meet this challenge.

Most of us have the same dreams for our children -- the opportunity to learn in schools that challenge and nurture them; to be protected against disease; to grow up in healthy neighborhoods; to know the taste of clean water, the smell of fresh air, and the pleasure of natural beauty around them. We want a nation, as our Constitution promises, where the only limits on our children's sights is the talent God gave them and their own determination and hard work.

In the past two years, we have added more new resources to educate America's children than ever before in our history. Across this country 500,000 more handicapped children; 200,000 more children of migrant workers; 125,000 children who speak no English who have lived on the outskirts of hope too long will start life with a better chance because of our Democratic Partnership. For the first time, every young person in our country who wants to go to college or vocational school is country who wants to go to college or vocational school is eligible for a grant or loan. [Next year, let us give education in America the priority and support it deserves by creating a new Cabinet-level Department of Education.]

No American family should be reduced to poverty, or bankruptcy, or go without needed health care because they cannot afford the cost. We have begun the fight for hospital cost containment. Next year we are going to win that fight. That Steps toward is an essential element in reaching the goal we share -- to pro-protect every American through a system of national health care.

People in every American city are struggling to raise their children in safe neighborhoods and homes; where teenagers can go to a job instead of a streetcorner; where there is sunlight, open spaces, and green parks. Today they are not alone.
Federal resources are not unlimited, but we have targetted and new aid. We have forged a new urban policy. Our nation's largest city is putting its finances in order -- today, and now facing its future with hope because the Democratic Party kept faith with the people of New York. We have begun the fight to bring billions of dollars in private investment to America's cities and rural centers through a National Development Bank.

Next year we are going to win that fight, too.

Our natural heritage is a gift to each new generation.

We have enacted long-awaited strip-mining protection, strengthened standards on clean water and air, and protected 114 million acres of Alaska's most precious wilderness. This Administration will continue to keep faith with the next generation by protecting our environment.

The civil rights revolution liberated both White and Black, both North and South. My commitment as President will never be in doubt. I will continue to uphold and vigorously enforce the promise of equal justice and opportunity written into laws of this land. I will enforce the spirit and the letter of the law of this land to ensure
We will not close our eyes to 200 years of systematic discrimination. We will promote and enforce effective affirmative action programs.

No American should be denied the right to vote. We passed the D.C. Voting Rights Amendment last year. Let us fulfill this longtime Democratic dream and win full voting rights for the people of the District of Columbia.

We have extended the time limits on the Equal Rights Amendment. Let us wipe out discrimination based on sex and make the ERA the law of the land.

The experience and wisdom of our older citizens is a priceless resource. Our Democratic partnership struck down discrimination based on age. Retired Americans deserve a life of dignity, not fear. The Social Security checks of all Americans are guaranteed today and for the rest of this century.

For too many years, the most idealistic people in the world saw their highest ideals betrayed.
Woodrow Wilson spoke for every American when he said:

"I would rather belong to a poor nation that was free than a rich nation that had ceased to be in love with liberty."

Our nation, conceived in liberty, is standing in defense of human rights today. We do not claim easy victories, but today brave people who are struggling around the world to taste the freedom we enjoy know they are not alone. Thousands of prison doors which once held innocent people have swung open. As long as I am President, continue to feed free. Under my Presidency, America will never be neutral in the struggle for human rights.

For so many years I dreaded sessions of the UN General Assembly because I knew the country I loved would be vilified and castigated by nations in the developing world. Today, the new peoples of many of those nations look to America with fresh eyes and new friendship because we are struggling with them for economic justice and development, democracy and peace.

In our own hemisphere, we have begun a new era of respect and cooperation with our neighbors. I am proud that the United States our nation and the Senate had the courage and vision to demonstrate to the world the greatness and strength of our nation by ratify the Panama Canal Treaties.

I am proud that while I have been President, no American has fought or died in combat anywhere. My deepest prayer is to be able to say when I leave this office, "America lived in peace."

America is at peace today and our nation has been a continuing and persistent force for peace in Cyprus, Rhodesia, Nicaragua, Southern Africa, and elsewhere. We have seen the President of Egypt and the Prime Minister of Israel, two long-time enemies, stand before our Congress and clasp hands in a gesture of peace. The road to peace in the Middle East is difficult, frustrating, with many deadlocks and delays. But after five wars and 3,000 years of hatred, I am confident that a Treaty of Peace, just and durable peace, between the nations of Israel and Egypt will be signed.
We are striving to reduce our sales of conventional arms and to convince other nations to join us in this effort. America does not want the title "Arms Merchant of the World". I would rather the peoples of other nations read the letters "USA" printed on a bushel of American wheat than on the bottom of a rifle butt.

Many depend on the strength of America for their peace and freedom. I am committed to a strong defense. My first career was military -- in our submarine service. My greatest responsibility as President is to ensure the security of our nation. I will continue to keep that commitment. Our nation's defense forces are stronger and more ready than ever before. Our NATO Alliance has been strengthened. Under this Administration, America's defenses will remain so strong and ready that no nation will ever be tempted to test them.

But we know that strong defenses alone cannot give us true security so long as the awesome power of the atom remains a weapon of war. At the end of World War II, the United States was the only nation that possessed an atomic bomb. Today there are five nations share this awesome responsibility.
We dare not [wait until] the capacity to produce nuclear weapons is readily available to dozens of nations, large and small, led by responsible leaders or madmen, and can easily fall into the hands of a terrorist group. We acted in the Congress last year to halt the spread of weapons-grade plutonium. Fifty nations are now working on this problem. We must continue to prevent the proliferation of nuclear weapons around the world.

The nuclear arms race pits superpower against superpower. It is an unending, unwinnable, ever more costly contest. It escalates the risk of confrontation. It increases the danger that a fatal miscalculation, a tragic accident, or an act of madness could propel the world into nuclear war, and wipe out life as we know it on this earth. We must bring the nuclear arms race under control.

We have been negotiating daily with the Soviet Union on a new treaty to limit strategic arms. We expect to sign soon an agreement which strengthens the security of the United States, is subject to precise verification, and substantially reduce the threat of nuclear war.

Once such a treaty is signed, I will depend on your help to ensure that it is ratified. Our generation has no more urgent responsibility to the next generation than to act now to reduce the danger of a nuclear holocaust. When the history of our time is written, let it be said that the American people met that responsibility.

These and other serious challenges we face as Democrats and as Americans. But as a party and as a people, we have met and overcome great challenges before. We will stay true to the promise of the Democratic Party. We will meet our urgent responsibilities. We will show compassion. We will strive for competence. And we will continue to dream great dreams— and to make those dreams come true.

With the courage and common sense of the American people as our guide, let us make this nation what our founders envisioned. tended it to be ... a land of liberty and opportunity, proud of its heritage of hope and human dignity, with the potential for greatness that only a free people can fulfill, a symbol of peace and freedom to all the world.

Thank you.

I have seen, and Rosalynn has seen, retarded youngsters come alive with excitement and pride after learning new skills because a mental health program reached out to them with love.

When government fails to deliver promised services; when red tape, paperwork, and bureaucracy waste time and tax dollars; those who suffer most are those who depend on government the most.

We are cutting red tape, throwing out ridiculous regulations, and eliminating millions of hours of paperwork.

We have breathed new energy and initiative into the federal civil service for the first time in 100 years.

We Democrats are trying to make government competent so it can be truly compassionate,...and we will achieve both those goals.

Those who rob from government through theft, fraud, and abuse, steal precious resources that could have helped give a child of poverty a head start;...train an unemployed youngster for a job;...build a decent home for a family;...provide legal services for the poor;...or nurse an older American back to health.
THEY STEAL HARD-EARNED TAX DOLLARS FROM EVERY STEEL WORKER, STORE CLERK, TEACHER, AND FARMER.

THIS ADMINISTRATION, AND OUR NEW INSPECTOR GENERAL, WILL CONTINUE TO ROOT OUT EVERY INSTANCE OF THEFT, ABUSE, AND FRAUD, ... AND WE WILL PROSECUTE THE GUILTY TO THE FULL EXTENT OF THE LAW.

FOR TOO MANY YEARS, TWO YEARS AGO, OUR FREE ENTERPRISE SYSTEM WAS HOBBLLED BY MASSIVE UNEMPLOYMENT, INFLATION, AND AN ENERGY CRISIS THAT GREW WORSE EACH PASSING YEAR.

HARRY TRUMAN SPOKE FOR EVERY DEMOCRAT WHEN HE SAID:

"WE DO NOT PROPOSE, LIKE SOME PEOPLE, TO MEET TODAY'S PROBLEMS BY SAYING THEY DO NOT EXIST, AND TOMORROW'S PROBLEMS BY WISHING TOMORROW WOULD NOT COME."

WE HAVE CONFRONTED THE DIFFICULT AND COMPLICATED ENERGY PROBLEM, AND WE ARE BEGINNING TO GET IT UNDER CONTROL.

IF WE JOIN TOGETHER AS A PEOPLE, I SEE AN AMERICA OF THE FUTURE—STRONG AND SECURE, FREE FROM FEAR OF ENERGY SHORTAGES,

I SEE AMERICAN GENIUS AND TECHNOLOGY HARNESING SOLAR POWER FOR MILLIONS OF BUILDINGS AND HOMES, AND CREATING THOUSANDS OF NEW JOBS.

AND I SEE AMERICA'S ACHIEVEMENTS OFFERING NEW HOPE TO AN ENERGY-STARVED WORLD.

WILL YOU JOIN ME IN THAT GREAT ADVENTURE?

---IN THE LAST TWO YEARS,...
In the last two years, we have created 6.5 million new jobs, an all-time record. We have cut unemployment more than 25 percent. The Republicans say they favor work, not welfare. But we Democrats have reduced the welfare rolls by 1.3 million Americans by producing new jobs. We have already saved more than $20 billion in welfare and unemployment insurance. We still have more to do. Our Democratic Partnership will continue to put America back to work.

After a Republican recession and housing depression, our economy has grown 9.5 percent. We built two million new homes last year. Corporate profits have increased 37 percent.

Alben Barkley was right: "If you want to live like a Republican, be sure to vote Democratic."

A Republican Administration squeezed America's farmers -- the most productive in the world -- by boosting middleman profits, embargoing shipments of their grain, ... farmers' and dictating their decisions.

We have ended grain embargoes; ... passed a new farm bill; ... and our Democratic Partnership has untied the farmers' hands.
Farm exports, so vital to our balance of trade, broke all records the past two years. Farm income is up 25 percent.

We Democrats are committed to what they have long deserved and are beginning to get -- a decent, fair income for American farmers.

For the first time in 40 years, we have deregulated a major industry. Now the airlines are making more money, more Americans are flying. And they are paying less.
Now that's free enterprise!

Next year we will bring similar benefits to Americans by deregulating the surface transportation industry.

Republicans promise tax cuts. We Democrats have cut taxes nearly $25 billion.

The Republicans left us the biggest budget deficit in American history. We have added new resources for human needs; ... strengthened our dollar; ... and cut that deficit $30 billion.

Large deficits fuel the flames of inflation, so we must cut them even more, ... and we will. For inflation threatens all our gains and all our hopes for continued growth.

--Inflation is robbing those......
Inflation is robbing those whom we most want to help: working families; the pensioner; the widow; and the poor. It breeds a narrow politics of fear.

It is an illusion to believe we can preserve a commitment to compassionate, progressive government if we fail to bring inflation under control.

Each of us must do our part, but government must lead.

I have set out my budget goals. I am determined to meet them.

Short-term sacrifices must be made. But we will balance those sacrifices fairly.

If we err in this balance, it will be on the side of those who are most in need.

By joining together to control inflation now, we can lay the foundation for an extended era of growth and prosperity in which all Americans can share: with more stable prices we can plan with confidence; with new jobs and opportunity; new resources to meet our pressing problems; new security and hope.

As President, I have no alternative except to bring inflation under control.

As Democrats and as partners we will meet this challenge.
MOST OF US HAVE THE SAME DREAMS FOR OUR CHILDREN --

THE OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN IN SCHOOLS THAT CHALLENGE AND NURE THEM;...TO BE PROTECTED AGAINST DISEASE;...TO GROW UP IN GOOD NEIGHBORHOODS;...TO KNOW THE TASTE OF CLEAN WATER, THE SMELL OF FRESH AIR, AND THE PLEASURE OF NATURAL BEAUTY AROUND THEM.

WE WANT A NATION, AS OUR CONSTITUTION PROMISES, WHERE THE ONLY LIMITS ON OUR CHILDREN ARE THE TALENTS GOD GAVE THEM AND THEIR OWN DETERMINATION AND HARD WORK.

IN THE PAST TWO YEARS, WE HAVE ADDED MORE NEW RESOURCES TO EDUCATE AMERICA'S CHILDREN THAN EVER BEFORE IN OUR HISTORY.

ACROSS THIS COUNTRY 500,000 MORE HANDICAPPED CHILDREN;
200,000 MORE CHILDREN OF MIGRANT WORKERS;...125,000 CHILDREN
WHO DO NOT SPEAK ENGLISH AS THEIR NATIVE LANGUAGE -- ALL CHILDREN WHO HAVE LIVED ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF HOPE TOO LONG -- WILL START LIFE WITH A BETTER CHANCE BECAUSE OF OUR DEMOCRATIC PARTNERSHIP.

FOR THE FIRST TIME, EVERY YOUNG PERSON IN OUR COUNTRY WHO WANTS TO GO TO COLLEGE OR VOCATIONAL SCHOOL IS ELIGIBLE FOR A GRANT OR LOAN.

NO AMERICAN FAMILY SHOULD BE REDUCED TO POVERTY, OR BANKRUPTCY, OR GO WITHOUT NEEDED HEALTH CARE BECAUSE THEY CANNOT AFFORD THE COST.

-- WE HAVE BEGUN THE FIGHT....
WE HAVE BEGUN THE FIGHT FOR HOSPITAL COST CONTAINMENT. NEXT YEAR WE ARE GOING TO WIN THAT FIGHT.

THAT IS ONE OF THE ESSENTIAL STEPS TOWARD REACHING THE GOAL WE SHARE -- TO PROTECT EVERY AMERICAN THROUGH A COMPREHENSIVE SYSTEM OF NATIONAL HEALTH CARE.

PEOPLE IN EVERY AMERICAN CITY ARE STRUGGLING TO RAISE THEIR CHILDREN IN SAFE NEIGHBORHOODS AND HOMES; ... WHERE TEENAGERS CAN GO TO A GOOD JOB INSTEAD OF A BAD STREETCORNER; ... WHERE THERE IS SUNLIGHT, OPEN SPACES, AND GREEN PARKS.

THEY ARE NO LONGER STRUGGLING ALONE. FEDERAL RESOURCES ARE NOT UNLIMITED, ... BUT WE HAVE TARGETTED NEW AID AND WE HAVE FORGED A NEW URBAN POLICY.

OUR NATION'S LARGEST CITY IS PUTTING ITS FINANCES IN ORDER AND NOW FACING ITS FUTURE WITH HOPE BECAUSE THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY KEPT FAITH WITH THE PEOPLE OF NEW YORK.

WE HAVE BEGUN THE FIGHT TO BRING BILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN PRIVATE INVESTMENT TO AMERICA'S CITIES AND RURAL CENTERS THROUGH A NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT BANK.

NEXT YEAR WE ARE GOING TO WIN THAT FIGHT.
Our natural heritage is a gift to each new generation. We have enacted long-awaited strip-mining protection, ... strengthened standards for clean water and air, ... and protected 114 million acres of Alaska's most precious wilderness, doubling our system of national parks.

With your help, this administration will continue to keep faith with the next generation by protecting our environment.

The civil rights revolution liberated both white and black, both north and south.

My commitment as President will never be in doubt.

I will continue to uphold and vigorously to enforce the spirit and the letter of the laws of this land to ensure equal justice and opportunity for the people of America.

We will not close our eyes to 200 years of systematic discrimination.

We will promote effective affirmative action programs.

We have extended the time limits for ratifying the Equal Rights Amendment. Let us join forces to wipe out discrimination based on sex and make the Equal Rights Amendment the law of the land.

-- and give voting rights...

-- the experience and wisdom...
The experience and wisdom of our older citizens is a priceless resource.

Our Democratic Partnership has struck down discrimination based on age. Retired Americans deserve a life of dignity, not fear.

The Social Security checks of all Americans are now guaranteed — not only but today and for the rest of this century.

For too many years, the most idealistic people in the world saw our highest ideals betrayed.

Woodrow Wilson spoke for every American when he said:

"I would rather belong to a poor nation that was free than a rich nation that had ceased to be in love with liberty."

Our nation, conceived in liberty, is standing in defense of human rights. We do not claim easy victories,... but brave people around the world who are struggling to taste the freedom we enjoy now know they are not alone.

Thousands of prison doors which once held innocent people have swung open.

As long as I am President, America will continue to lead worldwide the struggle for human rights.
For many years I dreaded sessions of the U.N. General Assembly because I knew the country I loved would be vilified and castigated by scores of nations in the developing world. The peoples of many of those nations now look to America with fresh eyes and new friendship because we are struggling with them for justice and economic development, for democracy and peace.

In our own hemisphere, we have initiated a new era of mutual respect and cooperation with our neighbors. I am proud that the United States Senate had the courage and vision to demonstrate to the world the greatness and strength of our nation by ratifying the Panama Canal Treaties.

Also, I am proud that while I have been President, no American has fought or died in combat anywhere. My deepest prayer is to be able to say when I leave this office, "America lived in peace."

With its great strength, America is a continuing and persistent force for peace in Cyprus, Rhodesia, Nicaragua, Southern Africa, and elsewhere. We have seen the President of Egypt and the Prime Minister of Israel, two long-time enemies, stand in the White House and before the Congress and clasp hands in a genuine gesture of peace.

---The road to permanent peace,...
Through individual in our life time gave more of her life, her energies and her devotion to the cause of peace than Golda Meir. The world has lost one of its great, good hearts.

The road to permanent peace in the Middle East is difficult and frustrating, with many deadlocks and delays.

But after four wars and 3,000 years of hatred, I am confident that our prayers will be answered, and Golda Meir's dream will come true -- a treaty of just and durable peace between the nations of Israel and Egypt will soon be signed.

We are reducing our sales of conventional arms and trying to convince other nations to join us in this commitment. America does not want the title "Arms Merchant of the World."

I would rather the peoples of other nations read the letters "U.S.A." printed on a bushel of American wheat than on the bottom of a rifle butt.

Many depend on the military strength of America for their peace and freedom.

I am committed to a strong defense. My first career was military -- in our submarine service.

My greatest responsibility as President is to maintain the security of our nation. I will continue to keep that commitment.

N.A.T.O. and our other alliances are being strengthened.

Under this Administration, America's defense forces will remain so strong and so well prepared that no nation will ever be tempted to test them.
But we know that strong defenses cannot give us true security so long as the awesome power of the atom remains a weapon of war.

At the end of World War II, the United States was the only nation that possessed an atomic bomb.

Today at least five nations share this sobering responsibility.

We dare not permit the ability to produce nuclear weapons to become available to dozens of nations, large and small, led by either responsible leaders or perhaps by madmen.

We acted in the Congress last year to halt the spread of weapons-grade plutonium. Fifty nations are now working together on this problem.

We must and we will continue to prevent the proliferation of nuclear weapons.

The nuclear arms race matches superpower against superpower. It is an unending, unwinnable, ever more costly contest. It escalates the risk of ultimate confrontation. It increases the danger that a fatal miscalculation, a tragic accident, or an act of madness could propel the world into nuclear war, and wipe out life as we know it on this earth.

I am dedicated to bringing the nuclear arms race under control.

--We have been negotiating daily.
WE HAVE BEEN NEGOTIATING DAILY WITH THE SOVIET UNION ON A NEW TREATY TO LIMIT STRATEGIC ARMS.

WE HOPE SOON TO SIGN AN AGREEMENT WHICH WILL STRENGTHEN THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES; ... WILL PROVIDE FOR ACCURATE VERIFICATION; ... AND WILL SUBSTANTIALLY REDUCE THE THREAT OF NUCLEAR WAR.

ONCE THE S.A.L.T. II TREATY IS SIGNED, I WILL DEPEND ON YOUR HELP TO ENSURE THAT IT IS RATIFIED.

WE HAVE NO MORE URGENT RESPONSIBILITY TO THE NEXT GENERATION THAN TO ACT NOW TO REDUCE THE DANGER OF A NUCLEAR HOLOCAUST.

WHEN THE HISTORY OF OUR TIME IS WRITTEN, IT WILL BE SAID THAT YOU AND I -- THE AMERICAN PEOPLE -- MET THAT RESPONSIBILITY.

WE FACE THESE AND OTHER SERIOUS CHALLENGES AS DEMOCRATS AND AS AMERICANS.

BUT AS A PARTY AND AS A PEOPLE, WE HAVE MET AND OVERCOME GREAT CHALLENGES BEFORE.

WE WILL STAY TRUE TO THE PROMISE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. WE WILL MEET OUR URGENT RESPONSIBILITIES. WE WILL STRIVE FOR COMPETENCE. WE WILL ACT WITH COMPASSION. AND WE WILL CONTINUE TO DREAM GREAT DREAMS -- AND TO MAKE THOSE DREAMS COME TRUE.
WITH THE COURAGE AND COMMON SENSE OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AS OUR GUIDE, WE WILL MAKE THIS NATION WHAT OUR FOUNDERS ENVISIONED -- A LAND OF LIBERTY AND OPPORTUNITY,... PROUD OF ITS HERITAGE OF HOPE AND HUMAN DIGNITY,... WITH THE POTENTIAL FOR GREATNESS THAT ONLY A FREE PEOPLE CAN FULFILL -- A SYMBOL OF PEACE AND LIBERTY TO ALL THE WORLD.

THANK YOU.
