

Shane Evans – “Living Through Your Dreams...The True Story” – Tuesday, October 11, 2011 at 10:00 am, 11:30 am, and 1:30 pm; and again Wednesday, October 12, 2011, at 10:00 am, 11:30 am, and 1:30 pm. – Reading/Free Student Event/Reservations Required – Carter Library & Museum Theater.

Nationally acclaimed artist Shane Evans will take your students on an engaging journey around the world through this reading and discussion presentation. Evans is a creative force. He comfortably wears titles that include artist, author, illustrator, musician, songwriter, and founder of Dream Studio, a community art space in Kansas City, Missouri, where he resides. He has more than 30 books to his credit as an illustrator, including Olu’s Dream, which he also authored. Many of the books have been featured in the media such as The Oprah Winfrey Show, The Today Show, Reading Rainbow, and Late Night with David Letterman. He has exhibited, lectured, and developed art programs for youth in Burkina Faso, Botswana, Brazil, China, France, Japan, Lesotho, and across the United States.

This is a free student event, but reservations are required. Please contact Kahlil Chism, Education Specialist, to reserve a seat for your students: janet.harris@nara.gov. 404-865-7114