Creator: Bauer, Patricia E.

Title: Patricia Bauer Papers

Dates: 1977-1979

Quantity: 4 linear feet, 10 linear inches, 11 containers

Identification:

Accession Number: 94-1

National Archives Identifier: 1109

Scope and Content:

This collection consists of memos, transcripts, cartoons, news clips, commentaries, and briefing summaries that were used in producing the White House News Summaries. The News Summary was issued six days a week for the use of President Carter, White House staff, and various Executive Office branch agencies among others. This material relates to the compilation of press articles using information from 130 newspapers, publications, evening television news broadcasts, news panel shows, and magazines.

Creator Information:

Patricia E. Bauer graduated cum laude from the University of Michigan in 1973. In addition, she edited the university's newspaper and also worked as a stringer for the Detroit Free Press, Time, and Newsweek. After college, Bauer worked as a reporter for the Ann Arbor News covering local government before moving to national and international news.

She served on the White House Press Office in the News Summary Office from January, 1977 until October, 1979. She began as Deputy Editor of the White House News Summary and became Editor on October, 1977. Among her responsibilities in this position, were selecting and reviewing publications for stories of interest for use in the News Summaries. In addition, she did the writing and editing for summarizing television news broadcasts, and also made arrangements for distribution of the News Summaries to White House staff.
