CARTER LIBRARY HOSTS AUTHOR READINGS & BOOK SIGNINGS

LBJ AND DALAI LAMA TOPICS AT JANUARY EVENTS

ATLANTA, GA.- The Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and the Georgia Center for the Book present a new biography of Lyndon Johnson and conversations with the Dalai Lama in January.

On January 4th, Randall Woods will discuss his new book “LBJ: Architect of American Ambition.” Woods’ book has received wide critical praise. A New York Times review said “Woods has produced an excellent biography that fully deserves a place alongside the best of the Johnson studies yet to appear.” The Washington Post wrote “in his masterful new biography, Randall B. Woods convincingly makes the case for Johnson's greatness.” Publishers Weekly calls the book “eloquent and riveting.” Copies of “LBJ” will be for sale at the event. The reading and book signing is free and open to the public. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. The reading begins at 7:00 p.m. (NEW TIME).
