C-SPAN PRESENTS PRES. CARTER AND SEN. HOWARD BAKER WATCH PROGRAM ON BI-PARTISANSHIP ON-LINE

Atlanta, GA. President Jimmy Carter and Senator Howard Baker discuss Democrats and Republicans working together in a new program available on line at C-Span. The discussion, which took place at the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library last month, deals with the way Carter, a Democrat, was able to work with Baker, a Republican. The two also discuss the current lack of bi-partisanship in Congress. Carter Library Director Jay Hakes moderated the discussion.

You can see the program by going to C-Span's website:

The meeting also marked the opening of a new exhibition of Senator Baker's photography at the Carter Presidential Museum. You can see images of the exhibition on the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library Facebook page
