June Book Signings at Carter Library

Baseball to Presidential Politics

Atlanta, GA. Join us for five, free author readings/book signings at the Carter Library. The readings start at 7pm in the Carter Museum Theater. Book signings follow the readings.

Thursday, June 3..... Lee Harris...The Next American Civil War: The Populist Revolt Against the Liberal Elite

Harris argues that we must listen carefully to this new populist uprising and take it seriously if we are to defend our founding principles and achieve true freedom for all.

Wednesday, June 9...Gwynne Dyer...Climate Wars

Dwindling resources. Massive population shifts. Natural disasters. Spreading epidemics. Drought. Rising sea levels. Plummeting agricultural yields. Crashing economies. Political extremism. These are some of the expected consequences of runaway climate change in the decades ahead, and any of them could tip the world towards conflict. Prescient, unflinching, and based on exhaustive research and interviews, Climate Wars promises to be one of the most important books of the coming years.

Thursday, June 10....William Jelani Cobb...The Substance of Hope: Barack Obama and the Paradox of Progress

In this engaging text, Cobb examines the impact of Barack Obama's presidential candidacy and subsequent election in a way that challenges readers to rethink their ideas of race and racism, identity and citizenship, metaphor and reality.

Tuesday, June 15...Rheta Grimsley Johnson...Enchanted Evening Barbie and the Second Coming: A Memoir

Nationally syndicated columnist Rheta Grimsley Johnson, winner of the Ernie Pyle Award for human interest reporting, turns her sharp eye on herself in this frank, exhilarating, wise, poignant, and brave memoir.

Wednesday, June 16.....Howard Bryant...The Last Hero: A Life of Henry Aaron

The first definitive biography of Henry Aaron--baseball's great home-run champion and one of its most enduring legends.
