Tues. March 24...Michael A. Gould-Wartofsky...*The Occupiers: The Making of the 99 Percent Movement

Occupy Wall Street burst onto the stage of history in the fall of 2011. First by the tens, then by the tens of thousands, protestors filled the streets and laid claim to the squares of nearly 1,500 towns and cities, until, one by one, the occupations were forcibly evicted. In The Occupiers, Michael offers a front-seat view of the action in the streets of New York City and beyond.

Tues. April 14th... Barney Frank... Frank: A Life in Politics from the Great Society to Same-Sex Marriage (TICKETS AVAILABE AT ACAPPELLABOOKS.COM) Individual tickets are $30 and include one book, while Couples tickets are $40 and also include one book. The talk will be in the Carter Center's Cecil B. Day Chapel

In Frank, a candid and witty political memoir, Barney Frank relates his journey from the outskirts of New York City to Boston's city hall and the Massachusetts legislature, and then to the U.S. Congress, where he played a vital role in the struggle for personal freedom and economic fairness for more than four decades.

Wed. April 15th... Terry Alford... *Fortune's Fool: The Life of John Wilkes Booth

In Fortune's Fool, Terry Alford provides the first comprehensive look at the life of an enigmatic figure whose life has been overshadowed by his final, infamous act. Tracing Booth's story from his uncertain childhood in Maryland, characterized by a difficult relationship with his famous actor father, to his successful acting career on stages across the country, Alford offers a nuanced picture of Booth as a public figure, performer, and deeply troubled man.

Wed. May 6...Jonathan Jordan...*American Warlords: How Roosevelt's High Command Led America to Victory in World War II

Drawing upon a wealth of primary sources, American Warlords goes behind closed doors to give readers an intimate, often surprising view of titans who led America from isolation to the summit of global power. Written in a robust, engaging style, author Jonathan W. Jordan offers a vivid portrait of four extraordinary Americans in the eye of war's hurricane.

Tues. May 19th... Alan Axelrod... *Lost Destiny: Joe Kennedy Jr. and the Doomed WWII Mission to Save London

On August 12, 1944, Lieutenant Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr., heir to one of America's most glamorous fortunes, son of the disgraced former ambassador to Great Britain, and big brother to freshly minted PT-109 hero JFK, hoisted himself up into a highly modified B-24 Liberator bomber. The munitions he was carrying that day were fifty percent more powerful than TNT. This is the story of that fateful mission.
