Gala accept

Stonewall, Texas

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Carter,

How delighted I was to receive the invitations to the Dedication of the Carter Presidential Center and the Gala Preview Reception and Breakfast! How well I know what an exciting time this is for you and everyone who has had a hand in making this dream become a reality. Cheers and congratulations!

Though I would love to be with you for all the events, I have a conflict that I am simply unable to change. For many months, Wednesday, October 1st, has been the date for a tea, where I am the honored guest, in New York for our National Wildflower Research Center Trustees in that area. And, since I was going to be in New York on that day, I scheduled several other business appointments. Because I so yearn to share a part of this special time in you lives, I'm going to fly to Atlanta on September 30th and attend the Reception that evening, leaving just in time to catch a 9:15PM plane to New York. At least, I will have the pleasure of a brief glimpse of you and the Center.

In happy anticipation, I send my warm best wishes.

Sincerely

Lady Bird J
