Follow-Up Activity

What Primary Sources Will Tell Your Extraordinary Life Story?

1. Review the presentation, paying close attention to the different types of primary sources highlighting President Carter’s Life (photograph, video, written document, artifact, artwork, etc.)

2. Thinking about what or who you want to be when you grow up, imagine examples of photographs, artifacts, documents, posters, artwork, audio or film that will exist for researchers to access to learn your life story; these can be actual sources that already exist, or theoretical ones in the future.

3. Choose one of these sources that means a lot to you and either create it, or if it already exists, provide a copy for submission to be shared with the class (physical or digital format acceptable).

4. Students will choose two of their classmates’ primary sources and complete the appropriate Document Analysis Worksheet for their skill level and source type, followed by group discussion.
