

NATIONAL ARCHIVES

National Archives in Washington, DC

National Archives and Records Administration

An Introduction, Grades 9-12

What is an archives?

Photograph in the stacks at the opening of the Social Security exhibit at the National Archives, 9/25/1964

Reproduction of the stacks in the Boeing Learning Center

What is a record?

Birth certificate for
John F. Kennedy

President George H.W. Bush, First Lady
Barbara Bush, President George W.
Bush, and First Lady Laura Bush

President Barack Obama, First Lady
Michelle Obama, their daughters Malia and Sasha, and their dogs, Bo and Sunny

Why do we need the National Archives?

The condition of War Department records stored in the White House garage (1920s) illustrate the need for a National Archives.

Stacks at the National Archives in Washington, DC

Professions at the National Archives

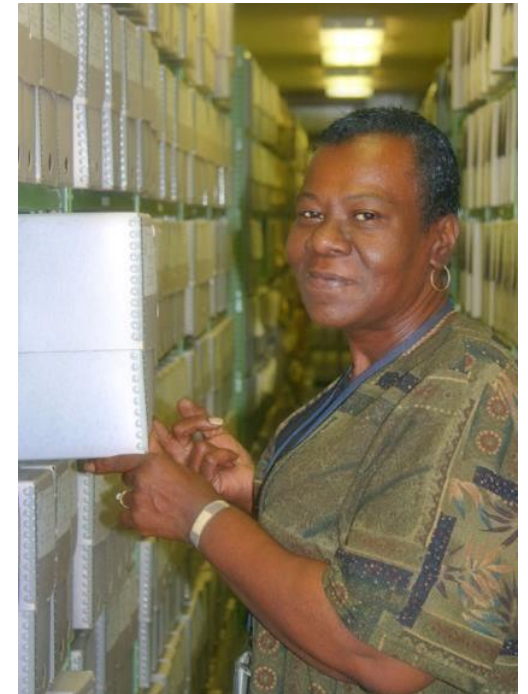

National Archives employees preserve the records of the U.S. Government and make them available to the public. They do this in different ways, but mostly as archivists, archives technicians, conservators, and records managers.

Yonjoo Strum is a conservator at Archives II in College Park, MD

Kate Mollan is an archivist with the Center for Legislative Archives at Archives I in Washington, DC

Sheila Mayo is an audio-visual archivist at the Jimmy Carter Library in Atlanta, GA

What can you do at the National Archives?

- Research your National History Day presentation or other school project
- Become a citizen archivist and help tag and transcribe original records online
- Explore historic records in the National Archives Catalog
- Visit one of our 14 Presidential Libraries and Museums
- Volunteer!

Find the National Archives online

US National Archives @USNatArchives

"Hello, I just came across this picture that you posted and the firefighter in the middle is my dad. Is there any way you can send me the original photo?"

How a #September11 posting on @instagram connected a firefighter to his photo: go.usa.gov/xdqwQ

usnatarchives · Follow

usnatarchives Eighteen years ago, a group of fire fighters looked on as President George W. Bush surveyed the destruction left by the terrorist attacks on New York City on September 11, 2001.

from #GeorgeWBushPresidentialLibrary: 911: President George W. Bush Visits New York, 9/14/2001, National

1,765 likes

Log in to like or comment.

10:10 AM · Jan 16, 2020 · Hootsuite Inc.

@USNatArchives Twitter

Comics Instameet 17w

MAD Magazine #1 is one of the 600 comic books from the Senate hearings. This copy of the famous satirical comic book is permanent federal record, and was submitted to the Senate subcommittee.

#COMICBOOKINSTAMEET

@USNatArchives Instagram

@USNationalArchives Giphy