CELEBRATE PRESIDENT'S DAY WITH ABRAHAM LINCOLN "LINCOLN LIVE" PERFORMANCE AT CARTER LIBRARY ON FEB. 15TH

Atlanta, GA. Celebrate President's Day at the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library with "Abraham Lincoln." Actor and motivational speaker Gene Griessman brings the 16th President to life in this stirring presentation of "The Wit and Wisdom of Abraham Lincoln." This riveting one-man portrayal will move you to tears and laughter. As original background music plays, laugh at Lincoln's jokes, thrill to his great speeches, and learn powerful lessons about success from the 16th President. The performance is at 1pm in the museum theater and is free with your paid museum admission.

President's Day is also an excellent time to see the ALL NEW Carter Presidential Museum. The whole family will enjoy this new, bright and highly interactive museum.

You'll experience "A Day in the Life of the President" on giant screens in the museum rotunda. As the clock ticks away the minutes, you'll go through a single day with Jimmy Carter as he faces critical decisions on terrorism, the economy, health care, immigration and much, much more.

The entire family will enjoy taking a virtual trip with the Carters as they travel around the world promoting democracy and fighting disease. Our INTERACTIVE MAP TABLE is able to accommodate up to 18 users at once. This state-of-the-art display utilizes six work stations, a flat-panel display monitor, overhead projection system, and customizable educational hardware and software to teach multi-disciplinary content: from geography, science, and history, to health & welfare, and human and political rights issues! You get to travel on your own airplane, virtually collect stamps of visited countries in your passport, and even email souvenirs and information about your travels to yourself and others.
