From Our Director

The new year is around the corner and while many things may not change, I am optimistic that some things will. This is the season of friends, family and hope. President Carter speaks of the common good all the time. So whether we enter the new year with limited contact or not, I am inspired by the words in his State of the Union Address 1978 (jimmycarterlibrary.gov). "Each generation of Americans has to face circumstances not of its own choosing, but by which its character is measured and its spirit is tested." We are passing that test. Be inspired during this season, be gracious and giving for we all must continue to support each other for the common good.

Upcoming Online Author Program

Citizen Cash

Filmmaker Ken Burns says "This is an important reassessment of one of American music's greatest performers, revealing a complex artist of the first magnitude who used his art and empathy to parse for him the contradictory times he immortalized in his work." Historian Michael Stewart Foley argues that Johnny Cash was the most important political artist of his time. Along with A Cappella Books, we welcome the author for a virtual discussion of "Citizen Cash" with GSU history professor and "Smoking Typewriters" author John McMillian on Tuesday, December 14, 2021, at 7 PM

Georgia Pecan Pie

The following recipe is a favorite of the Carter Family. A great addition to any holiday dinner!

Ingredients: 1/2 cup honey; 1/2 cup raw sugar; 1/4 cup butter; 1 cup pecans (broken); 3 eggs (beaten); pie crust*

Directions: Preheat oven to 400 degrees Fahrenheit. Mix honey and sugar in saucepan. Cook over low heat until mixture is smooth. Add butter. Stir until melted. Cool slightly. Add eggs and nuts. Pour mixture into unbaked pie crust. Bake in oven 10 minutes. Reduce heat. Continue to bake for 25 additional minutes at 350 degrees Fahrenheit, until pie is set. Remove and allow to cool.
