Free Authors Events & Film Screenings “Black Panther”

Atlanta – The next seven days will be filled with free author programs and film screenings at the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Museum. There’s something for everyone.

Friday, June 14 (7pm)...Jennifer Berry Hawes...Grace Will Lead Us Home

This is a deeply moving work of narrative nonfiction on the tragic shootings at the Mother Emanuel AME church in Charleston, South Carolina. Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Jennifer Berry Hawes provides a definitive account of the tragedy’s aftermath. With unprecedented access to the grieving families and other key figures, Hawes offers a nuanced and moving portrait of the events and emotions that emerged in the massacre’s wake. In Conversation with the AJC’s Ernie Suggs.

Saturday, June 15 (1pm)...Jenna Brayton...Yes She Can

Return to President Obama's White House in this New York Times bestselling anthology for young women by young women, featuring stories from ten inspiring young staffers who joined his administration in their 20s with the hope of making a difference. Meet contributors Jenna Brayton, Elle Celeste, Taylor Lustig and Molly Dillon.

Sunday, June 16 (3pm..Day Chapel)...Elaine Welteroth...More Than Enough

The Baton Foundation, Inc., in partnership with the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Museum will host a conversation and book signing featuring former Teen Vogue editor-in-chief and award-winning journalist Elaine Welteroth. The book is a deeply personal coming-of-age tale: the story of a young woman reckoning with race, family, friendship, heartbreak, and learning to look inward—and upward—for strength.

Tuesday, June 18 (7pm) Film Screening...Road Not Taken.

The Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Friends of Mimosa Hall & Gardens present a free screening of the film Road Not Taken: The Story of the Jimmy Carter White House Solar Installation.

Wednesday, June 19 (6:30pm)...Film Screening...Black Panther

In celebration of Juneteenth, we'll present a free screening of the 2018 superhero film based on the Marvel Comics character Black Panther. The film received numerous awards and nominations, with seven nominations at the 91st Academy Awards including Best Picture, with wins for Best Costume Design, Best Original Score, and Best Production Design. Black Panther is the first superhero film ever to receive a Best Picture nomination

Also Coming

Tuesday, June 25 (7pm) Jim Auchmutey...Smoke Lore

Jim Auchmutey follows the delicious and contentious history of barbecue in America from the ox roast that celebrated the groundbreaking for the U.S. Capitol building to the first barbecue launched into space almost two hundred years later. The narrative covers the golden age of political barbecues, the evolution of the barbecue restaurant, the development of backyard cooking, and the recent rediscovery of traditional barbecue craft.

Thursday & Friday June 27 & 28 at 10 am...Stranger Things Screening...Season 1 episodes 1-4 & 5-8

In anticipation of the release of its third season, the Carter Library will have free, public screenings of the first two seasons of Stranger Things. Filmed here in Georgia, the first season follows the story of a young boy who mysteriously disappears, his mother, a police chief, and his friends who must confront terrifying forces in order to get him back.

Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday July 1, 2 & 3...at noon...Stranger Things Screening...Season 2 episodes 1-3, 4-6, 7-9

In the second season, old cast members and new battle a mysterious enemy from another dimension that threatens to consume the world as we know it.

Tuesday, July 2 at 6:30pm...First Man screening

This riveting story of NASA's mission to land a man on the moon focuses on Neil Armstrong and the years 1961-1969. The movie explores the sacrifices and the cost—on Armstrong and on the nation—of one of the most dangerous missions in history.

Thursday, July 25 (7pm)...Josh Douglas...Vote for US

In contrast to the anxiety surrounding our voting system, with stories about voter suppression and manipulation, there are actually quite a few positive initiatives toward voting rights reform. Professor Joshua A. Douglas, an expert on our electoral system, examines these encouraging developments in this inspiring book about how regular Americans are working to take back their democracy, one community at a time.

Saturday, August 10 (6pm in Day Chapel)...Susan Rebecca White...We Are All Good People Here

From the author of A Place at the Table and A Soft Place to Land, a gripping, multigenerational story inspired by true events that follows two best friends through their political awakenings in the turbulent 1960s—and the repercussions of their actions after their daughters encounter the secrets they thought they had buried long ago.

Wednesday, August 13 at 6:30pm...Fried Green Tomatoes...Film Screening

While set in Alabama, this classic tale of empowered women and undying friendship was filmed right here in Georgia. Join us for this free public screening as we continue to celebrate “Georgia on My Screen!”

Thursday, August 15...Rebecca Vaughn...20 Years in the Secret Service

The daughter of Secret Service agent Rufus Youngblood discusses his memoir of protecting five Presidents. It includes Youngblood's first-hand account of the Kennedy assassination and its aftermath, as well as highlights from his twenty-year career in the Secret Service during which he protected Presidents Truman, Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon
