The Honorable Jimmy Carter
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

As of October 1, 1979, this district will have no United States Attorney unless a new one is nominated by you and confirmed by the Senate in the interim. In the absence of such action, it will be the duty of the Court to appoint an acting United States Attorney to serve until the new one has been nominated and confirmed.

The judges of our Court would prefer to appoint your nominee for that position even if he has not been confirmed, provided the nomination occurs before October 1. I am providing you this information so you can know of the Court's attitude.

Finally, the outgoing United States Attorney has advised us that the Attorney General does not want us to appoint the person presently under consideration for the position unless he has actually been nominated by you by October 1, 1979. So, absent a nomination by you by that date we will choose someone as Acting United States Attorney in accordance with our best judgment.

G. Thomas Eisele
Chief Judge
Eastern District of Arkansas
