The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Mr. President:

American workers applaud your strong leadership in opposition to the proposed cut in capital gains taxes, which you correctly describe as a windfall for the rich.

Any reductions in capital gains taxes -- which are already only half taxed -- would only encourage speculators, while denying equity to the vast majority of taxpayers. We made that point in our letter last week to the members of the House Ways and Means Committee opposing the capital gains tax cut.

The benefits of such a cut would go principally to the wealthiest individuals, who already enjoy tax loopholes not available to average taxpayers. The proposal is little more than a continuation of the discredited "trickle-down" theory of economics, where the rich get richer and maybe someday a few crumbs will reach those at the lower economic rungs.

The AFL-CIO will continue to support the basic thrust of your tax-cut proposals, since they provide the most benefit to the most people, and we will work strongly to oppose any widening of the capital gains loophole.

Again, thank you for your forthright leadership on this vital issue.

Sincerely,

George Meany

President

MEMORANDUM

TO : The Honorable Jimmy Carter
The White House

FROM : Sam Brown
Director

In response to your memorandum of June 14th, we are anxious to be helpful in organizing the White House Conference on Small Business, scheduled for January 1980.

My initial reaction is that we could be helpful in two areas:

1. Strengthening the opportunities for small business in the rapidly expanding areas of appropriate technologies. For example, within your on-going Solar Energy Policy Review will the potential for small business participation and community ownership be fully developed.

2. Emphasizing the contributory roles to be played by small businesses in neighborhood/community revitalization efforts, within the context of your new urban policy package.

I am designating my Executive Assistant for Programs, Don Green, as our liaison to the Small Business Administrator, Vernon Weaver. Don can be reached by telephone at 254-3192.
